Easter Reflection

Loving and merciful God, may the Easter fires of this season set my heart aflame and be the fire that starts other fires in this world.

Hold my heart close and sing your love to me so my doubts don't fill my head and make me afraid.

May I recognize your face in those around me and enter into their wounds. Give me the gift of your compassion to love them as you love me.

THE DEEP END • 'And they recognised him'

Have you ever seen someone who looks familiar but you cannot quite place them? Or perhaps someone you know well changed their hair colour or style and you did not recognise them? Reading over today's Gospel, one question springs immediately to mind: how could it be that disciples of Jesus would not recognise him, especially when his story was all they wanted to talk about to a complete stranger?

After the event it makes sense to them; 'Did not our hearts burn within us as he talked to us on the road and explained the scriptures to us?' they wonder, and they rush back to Jerusalem to share their story. The experience with Jesus, which culminated in the breaking of the bread, stirred something within them and piece by piece, like a jigsaw, it all fell into place.

Perhaps they were not ready at the start and had to take a journey with Jesus (even one in the 'wrong direction') to finally arrive at a place where they were able to recognise him and become what they were supposed to be – disciples. Once they had come to recognition they did what all good disciples should – rushed off to tell others!

When was the last time your heart burned within you.
