Thought for the Week

"Faith is daring the soul to go beyond what the eyes can see."
Anon.

Summer Break.

I'm not sure that Summer has come and gone again. As I write this item we are back to the Winter woollies. However, July and August are usually the warmest months, so the summer still holds a time of a promise of better days. However there is little sign of global warming in Ireland at present.

We all need time out from our busy schedules. So your editor and his team are taking a rest and this edition of the weekly newsletter is the final one until the beginning of September. During the eight weeks in between we will have available at Mass, The St. Paul's Missalette which we use on Holydays.

May I take this opportunity to thank Tom Byrne and Richard Tobin, who type up and print our weekly newsletter. They are most dependable and do an excellent job. Our thanks to John Doyle who keeps our often praised website up to date each week and will continue to do so over the Summer months. To Sister Margaret and Dolores Hayden who cast their watchful eyes over the typed product before it goes to print to make sure there are no errors, our sincere thanks.

Again I would like to extend our gratitude to all who fold the Newsletter, including our helpers in St. Michael's House. It is a big team effort and we would like to thank our readers and those who send in articles and items of news from time to time. They are always most welcome.

Remembering Children Who Drowned.

As a memorial to these children a park bench will be erected and officially unveiled on Thursday 12th July at 11am in Sundrive Park, known as Eamon Ceant Park.

You are invited to this occasion which will be followed by refreshments in the Pastoral Centre beside St. Bernadette's Church. You might also spread the news around especially among families who have been bereaved.

BOOKING MASSES

One of the problems we have is booking Masses at weekends. To accommodate requests, beginning in October, the Saturday Evening Mass will be a shared Mass. You submit names for the Vigil Mass as usual through the Parish Office. The remaining Sunday Masses may be booked in the usual way.

Know Your Neighbour Weekend.

This year this will run on Sat. 14th and Sun 15th July 07. You are invited by Macra to get to know your neighbour by inviting them for a cup of tea of by organising an event and inviting a number of your neighbours.

Stay with us Lord

- (R) Stay with us Lord we pray you Alleluia
1. You are the bread come down from heaven. You are the food of life eternal. (R)
 2. You are the light which illumines the world. Brightening our way, dispelling our darkness. (R)
 3. You are the Christ the divine Son of God. You are the pledge of life eternal. (R)

Sweet Heart of Jesus

1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.
R. Sweet heart of Jesus, we implore, O make us love thee more and more.
2. Sweet heart of Jesus, make us pure and gentle, and teach us how to do thy blessed will; to follow close the print of thy dear footsteps, and when we fall—sweet heart, oh, love us still.
