Thought for the Week

"No person can be a friend of Jesus Christ who is not a friend of his neighbour."
R. Benson.

Your Visit.

I read a story some years ago which somehow has always remained fresh in my memory. An old gentleman used to take a walk every evening and always headed for the Church. Seeing him so often going into the Church, the parish priest asked him one day "Johnny what do you say to the Lord every day". Johnny smiled and replied "Father I just sit there. You know Jesus is very fond of me.

Yes Jesus is fond of each one of us if only we could realise it. Think of all he has done for us, from His Incarnation to His Crucifixion on the cross. He loves you as if you were the only person in the world. From the Tabernacle he thanks you for the comfort of your Adoration. St. Teresa of Avila tells us that "Prayer is a lifting up of our hearts to God by whom we know we are being loved.

Here in St. Agnes' we are privileged to have the Blessed Sacrament exposed almost daily in the Adoration Oratory. Jesus is waiting there for you-to tell Him your love for him and listen to your troubles. Perhaps you are grieving or you are worried about your health, anxious about your child or your grandchild, praying about examinations or about getting a good job. Whatever it is-great or small He will listen.

Let us not forget to thank Him too for all the gifts He gives us daily. Let us pray for peace in the world, in Ireland, pray for our Parish and for our homes, or let us just sit there, because He is very fond of us.

Caroline.

Great News.

It was great news to read in last weeks Mass leaflet that our P.P. Fr. John has been appointed a Monsignor.

Congratulations Fr. John on this achievement, in congratulating you may I say a special thank you to you Fr. John and all the priests of the Parish a very special appreciation for all their selfless work in St. Agnes Parish.

I do hope the editor publishes this letter.
Thank you.
A Parishioner.

Just to express my thanks to all in the Parish and beyond who stopped to offer a word of congratulations and to those who sent messages and cards. You are very kind and thoughtful.

Education in Faith Sunday.

The Irish bishops have designated Sunday 4th February as 'Education in Faith Sunday', and to mark the occasion are paying special attention to Pope Benedict's first Encyclical Letter:

Deus Caritas Est. [God is love].

Education in Faith Sunday was formerly called Catechetical Sunday. The title was changed to clarify the concept of life-long learning in faith and to foster greater links between home, school and parish. We are also reminded that we are all teachers under the guidance of the Spirit and share in the responsibility in furthering the Reign of God.

Make a wish Foundation grants wishes to children in Ireland between the ages of 3-18 years that are trying to deal with a life-threatening illness.

These children might wish to go somewhere really special, to meet a famous person or become whatever they want to become, if only for a day.

Sometimes these wishes may be the last one a terminally ill child is granted and provides families with long lasting memories.

Next Readers Meeting

Tuesday 27th
of February

Christ be near at Either Hand

1. Christ be near at either hand, Christ behind before me stand, Christ with me where e'er I go, Christ around, above, below.
2. Christ be in my heart and mind, Christ within my soul enshrined, Christ control my wayward heart, Christ abide and ne'er depart

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

Sweet Sacrament Divine

1. Sweet Sacrament Divine, hid in thy earthly home, lo! Round thy lonely shrine, with suppliant hearts we come; Jesus, to thee our voice we raise, in songs of love and heartfelt praise, Sweet Sacrament Divine. [R.]
2. Sweet Sacrament of Peace, dear home of every heart, where restless yearnings cease, and sorrows all depart, there in thine ear all trustfully we tell our tale of misery, Sweet Sacrament of Peace. [R.]

Be Thou My Vision

1. Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart, Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art: Be thou my best thought in the day and the night, Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.
2. Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word, Be thou ever with me and I with thee, Lord: Be thou my great Father, and I thy true son, Be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.
