Thought for the Week

"Patience is the grace to be able to put up with people that you would really like to put down." - Anonymus.

PRAYING FOR PRIESTS

Mission Sunday this year saw some members of the St Agnes branch of the St Joseph's Young Priests Society attend a half day of prayer in Clonliffe College. The message of the day was Hope—through prayer. Fr Eamonn Bourke a young Diocesan priest in charge of promoting vocations spoke with enthusiasm (which was not dimmed) for the future of the Church. "Help your priests with their heavy work load", "Build initiatives", "Be a blessing to each other to foster vocations", "Be people of prayer, people of hope".

We here in the Parish of St Agnes are so blest. Our Parish priest, Fr John Deasy, actively encourages our branch of the St Joseph's Young Priests Society. He has provided a superb room for our monthly meeting, for which we are very grateful.

The meeting is on the second Tuesday of every month, and lasts one hour. We pray for vocations and support (by our contributions) the vocations to the priesthood of some needy student priests.

New members are always welcome. We also need prayers for the work we try to do. Can we invite you to say this little prayer every day, and maybe include it in your rosary or prayer group? Prayer is so powerful.

O Jesus, send labourers into your fields, which are awaiting holy apostles, saintly priests, heroic missionaries, dedicated sisters and brothers. Enkindle in the hearts of men and women the spark of a vocation. Grant that Christian families may desire to give your church helpers in the work of tomorrow. (Pope John XXIII—Adapted)

St Agnes Church is a place of prayer, it is never empty. Have you noticed that? God has blessed us with a wonderful parish. Lets pray for vocations to the priesthood for our own parish, and every parish in the world.

Marie Lawlor, Secretary of St Joseph's Young Priests Society

Scouting Ireland

We are expecting a large gathering this weekend of Scouts of all ages as they come together to celebrate what they call their 'County Mass' in St Agnes Church at 3pm this Sunday, 4th November. It is an occasion to acknowledge the good work done by the Scouting movement in Ireland. A special word of thanks to their leaders for their dedication. The Mass will be followed by a parade to the Den on Bunting Road

WHAT COUPLES NEED TO DO

New Civil Requirements for Marriage from 5th November 2007*
(for distribution to couples seeking to marry in the Catholic Church)

- Make an Appointment to meet with any Civil Registrar to give at least three months notice of your intention to marry in advance of your proposed date of marriage.
- In preparation for the meeting with the Registrar meet with your local priest, book your church and know the name of the priest who has agreed to celebrate your marriage (he is known in civil law as the Solemniser)
- Make sure the Priest who has agreed to marry you is on the 'List of Solemnisers'. If he is not on the list ask your local priest about having him nominated as a Temporary Solemniser for your marriage.
- You will need the following information and documentation for your meeting with the Registrar.
 1. Photo identity (preferably a passport or driving license)
 2. Names and dates of birth of witnesses
 3. Name of the church where you wish to marry
 4. Date of Marriage
 5. Name of priest who will officiate at your marriage
 6. If either of you has been previously married you must provide the Civil Registrar with an original divorce decree or death certificate if widowed
- Make sure you receive the Marriage Registration Form (MRF) from the Registrar and show it to the Solemniser who has agreed to marry you to ensure that all the details are correct.
- Make a verbal declaration of no civil impediment before the Solemniser and your two witnesses not more than 2 days before your marriage. It usually takes place just as you arrive at the sanctuary area on the day of your marriage as the Rite of Marriage is about to begin.
- You must return to any Civil Registrar's office the signed MRF/Form A not later than 1 month after your marriage has been celebrated.

* Transitional arrangements—if you have already given notice to the Registrar before the 5th November 2007 you will have to make sure the priest who is to celebrate your marriage is on the 'List of Solemnisers' and make the verbal declaration of no civil impediment. However, you will use the Form A marriage form (the form that has been used up to now in Ireland) rather than the MRF.

Spare copies of the document are available in the Parish Office and the government website www.groireland.ie

How Great Thou Art

1. O Lord my God when I in awesome wonder, consider all the works thy hand hath made, I see the stars I hear the mighty thunder thy power through-out the universe displayed.

Chorus: Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee, how great thou art, how great thou art, then sings my soul my saviour God to thee How great thou art, how great thou art.

2. When through the woods and forest glades I wander and hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees when I look down from lofty mountains grandeur and hear the brook and feel the gently breeze.

Praise to the Lord

1. Praise to the Lord the almighty, the king of creation. O my soul praise him for he is your health and salvation. All you who hear, now to his altar draw near, joining in glad adoration.

2. Praise to the Lord let us offer our gifts at his altar; Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter, Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast Victims with him on the altar.

The King of love my shepherd

1. The King of love my Shepherd is, whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His and He is mine for ever.

2. Where streams of living water flow my ransomed soul He leadeth, And where the verdant pastures grow with food celestial feedeth.

Faith of Our Fathers

1. Faith of our fathers living still, in spite of dungeon, fire and sword, O how our hearts beat high with joy, Whene'er we hear that glorious word. Faith of our Fathers holy faith, We will be true to thee till death.

2. Our fathers chained in prisons dark, were still in heart and conscience free; how sweet would be their children's fate, if they like them could die for thee. Faith of our fathers, Holy Faith, We will be true to thee till death.

CYC COLLECTION

The annual Collection for the Diocesan Youth Services will be held at all Masses next weekend 10-11th November. It will replace the normal Share collection. Catholic Youth Care supports and services youth work and youth ministry throughout the Dublin Diocese, reaching out to many of the most marginalised young people in the archdiocese. Please give your generous support at all Masses next weekend.
