What is a Shared Mass?

This is a question people have been asking since we mentioned this in the Newsletter in recent weeks. Starting on the first Sunday in October, the Vigil Mass on Saturday evening at 7:00pm each weekend, will be said for a number of people each week. People will submit an Anniversary Intention and make a small offering. The Mass on each Saturday Vigil will be said for those people on the list that will be read out. The remaining Masses, that is those on Sunday will follow the usual arrangements and can be booked up to six months in advance. The problem of meeting the demands of all our parishioners led to the introduction of the Shared Mass. Each weekend we have three Masses less than before. We hope this arrangement in future will ease the difficulties for parishioners and our Parish Office.

Thought for the Week

"As man alone, Jesus could not save us: as God alone he would not::as God and man he could and did." --Malcolm Muggeridge

An Easter Reflection

Our Easter Liturgy is full of telling words and phrases – like 'seeing', 'recognising'. After his resurrection no one seems to know Jesus when they first meet him... not Mary Magdalen who thought he was the gardener, or the apostles on the lake shore or even the two disciples who spent hours with him on the way to Emmaus. But in every case the final fruit of the meetings were recognition.

Earlier in his gospel John tells of certain Greeks who came to Jerusalem and said they wanted to see Jesus. They were looking for someone to introduce them to him and naturally enough went to Philip because of his Greek - sounding name. In a way they went to the wrong man. Philip wasn't so sure of himself and went off to enlist the help of Andrew. Maybe he felt he still needed an introduction himself!

After all it was this same Philip who after listening to Jesus speaking eloquently of his Father said, a little impatiently perhaps, 'Lord, show us the Father; let us see him and it will be enough for us.' In answer Jesus said sadly, 'Have I been with you so long and you still do not know me? Philip, to see me is to see the Father.' This was one of the most staggering things that Jesus ever said. It was a Jewish article of faith that no one ever did or ever could see God. To see Jesus is to see what God is like and it is the only way to see it. In Jesus God himself becomes the one to teach us what it means to be really human in this muddled world. An astounding thought. God in Jesus sharing in the most ordinary everyday experiences of life. This is God actually living our life.

GOOD NEWS HAPPY MARRIAGES SHOULD BE CELEBRATED

A number of people have told us they are celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversaries this year. They were married in 1957. We thought it would be good to mark the Diamond, Golden, Ruby, Pearl and Silver Wedding Anniversaries taking place this year at the 12:00 noon Mass on Sunday 22nd April. You and your families would be very welcome along on that occasion even if your marriage partner has died. In order to let us know how many are attending, please notify Mary in the Parish Office (Phone: 01 - 455 5368) as soon as possible.

Through no fault of our organising team not every family has a box of envelopes. There is always problems each year surrounding their distribution. If no box has come your way or if you are a first time giver, would you call to the Parish Office for a box of envelopes. Your envelope may be dropped into the Family Offering White Box at the rear of the Church any time the Church is open. If you so wish you may give by Standing Order if you have a bank account. Please support St. Agnes Parish.

Praise My Soul The King of Heaven

Praise my soul the King of Heaven, To his feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who am I his praise to sing? Praise him. Praise him, Praise him. Praise the everlasting King. Praise him for his grace and favour, To our fathers in distress: Praise him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Glorious in his faithfulness. Fatherlike he tends and spares us: Well our feeble frame he knows: In his hands he gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes. Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Widely as His mercy flows.

Praise to the Lord

1. Praise to the Lord the almighty, the king of creation. O my soul praise him for he is your health and salvation. All you who hear, now to his altar draw near, joining in Glad adoration.
 2. Praise to the Lord let us offer our gifts at his altar; Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter, Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast victims with him on the altar.

A New Hymn of Praise.

Response A new hymn of praise let us sing to the Lord Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
 1. This is the day the Lord has made; Ransom for sin his life he gave. (R)
 2. To save us he was crucified, Raising our hearts when hope had died. (R)
 3. Bringing him gifts of bread and wine. We receive back, his life divine. (R)
 4. So live within us, make us one; Stay with us Lord, till life is done. (R)

Let the Earth rejoice and Sing

Let the earth rejoice and sing alleluia At the triumph of our king, Alleluia He ascends from mortal sight, Alleluia Reigns now at our Father's right, Alleluia Jesus victor, hear our prayer, Alleluia In thy triumph let us share, Alleluia Lift our minds and hearts above, Alleluia Strengthen all men in thy love, Alleluia
