Thought for the Week

"Jesus is a friend who walks in when the world has walked out."

Airs & Graces

It cannot be true that Jesus never laughed, yet we seldom see images of him laughing. Artistic impressions favour the serious look, the disappointment on his face. I know of only one picture—sent to me from the Philippines—where he's portrayed laughing his head off. Far from being irreverent, it shows a man full of life who can appreciate the funny side of things.

There is some hope for our sanity [and sanctity] when we can laugh at ourselves, at our 'airs and graces' as we try to impress one another. 'consider the lilies in the field', said Jesus. They don't have all our anxieties; they just open their heart and be themselves.

If we could trust life instead of trying to control it, we might allow our Guardian Angels bit of elbow - room and learn that everything does not depend on us. The truly spiritual ones can laugh because they know that everything is in God's hands; there is no need to be afraid.

Laughter is a sign of the presence of God, not laughter as ridicule at another's expense but the laughter of human beings at what foolish children we are, how little we understand, but how much we are loved. Such laughter celebrates diversity, creates communion and proclaims how good it is to be alive. And isn't that what Christianity is all about?

OCTOBER; Month of the Rosary.

To mark this time of year, the Family Rosary Group in Lifford, Co. Donegal are promoting the recitation of the Rosary, especially in the family setting. Our Parish Shop has a very special offer of Rosary Beads at €1 each.

In their concluding lines of their covering letter they ask and encourage people to "Restore the beautiful tradition" where the Irish people honour Mary, the Mother of Jesus.

Emigrant Sunday

This weekend we remember our emigrants. There are few families who do not have members living overseas. We often hear of the successful people. However for others emigration is not a success story. They are lonely and perhaps have turned to alcohol to ease their pain. This weekend we are called upon to contact our emigrants overseas to say we are thinking of them. Keep them in your prayers.

Church Gate Collection

This weekend the collection is in aid of the Third World Charity, Self Help Development, International. They ask your support for their work.

Price of Gas.

This week the price of gas rose by 34% - way above inflation. This affects the cost of running the Parish Church which is a large consumer of gas. The Diocese has had a special deal with Bord Gais, which has now been discontinued on the orders of the EU, so that our increase is about 50%.

I will now be endeavouring to improve the insulation levels of the Church where there is a huge heat loss. I will be requesting approval from the Diocese to initiate this work. Improvements will take some time to complete. I will keep you informed.

Fr. John.

St. Oliver Plunkett ; Day of Prayer for Peace & Reconciliation.

Next Thursday, 12th October, is the Anniversary of the Canonisation of St. Oliver Plunkett. The Peace Process in the north of Ireland has been progressing slowly and steadily. It will soon reach another important juncture in November. We are asked to pray for continued peace and a successful conclusion to the efforts of the British and Irish Governments who are working together to bring about a meeting of minds in Northern Ireland.

Family Offering Envelopes.

We would like to thank all our parishioners who contribute so generously to the Family Offering Collection. We are updating our records, and would be grateful if you would put your name and address on your envelopes for the next few weeks.

Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound!
That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found; Was blind but now I see.
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved.
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

Receive O Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O father in thy love,
These humble gifts of bread and wine;
That with ourselves we offer thee,
Returning gifts already thine.
2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord.
To thee on high the gifts we raise
Through them may we our honour pay,
Our adoration and our praise.

Stay with us Lord

- R. Stay with us Lord we pray you, Alleluia.
1. You are the bread come down from heaven;
You are the food of life eternal.
 - R.
2. You are the light which illumines the world,
Brightening our way, dispelling our darkness.
 - R.
3. You are the Christ the divine Son of God,
You are the pledge of life eternal.
- R.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God,
With hearts and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,

In whom the world rejoices,
Who from our mother's arms,
Has blessed us on our way,
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God,
Through all our lives be near us,
With ever joyful hearts,
And blessed peace to cheer us,
And keep us in his grace,
And guide us when perplexed,
And free us from all ills,
In this world and the next.
