Thought for the Week

"If you do not hope, you will not find what is beyond your hopes"
- St Clement

THE DEEP END
'Come to me... and I will give you rest'

In all our lives we carry many burdens. Sometimes we carry them in such a way that they help us grow, at other times we allow them to eat away at us, making them very heavy indeed. Jesus is not saying that we will not have burdens to carry. But he is telling us to find rest in him. Jesus is offering refreshment and peace. Even when those we love pass into eternal life, we are consoled in knowing that they are at peace and that we will be united with them again.

We perform many rituals in remembering the dead, especially in the month of November. Today we might light a candle, say a prayer, visit a church or grave, look at old photographs. We can be thankful for the many ways in which our loved ones shaped us, cared for us, and who are with us as we continue to journey through life. 'We are who we are today and we are where we are today, because of those whose lives have touched ours and who have let our lives touch theirs. God, in the magnificence of things, does not intend us to be neutral when we lose those who have loved us. So, our grief has to be tinged with gratitude for lives which have shaped us, for hands that have held us, for voices that have inspired us, for eyes which have beheld us, for ears that have listened to us.'

The Church Gate Collection this weekend is in aid of The Dublin Simon Community:

As Dublin Simon Community continue to work to address and prevent Homelessness in Dublin, we would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone in St Agnes Parish in Crumlin for your ongoing generosity. Dublin Simon Community continue to adapt and improve our services in order to meet the individual needs of our clients. We compliment the work of our housing, recovery, treatment and prevention services with programmes that focus on personal development, education and employment. With these opportunities and a little encouragement and care, we can see individuals reach their full potential and never return to homelessness. Because of you, we are able to support them along the road out of homelessness to re-establish their sense of self in a safe and secure environment.

Please be as generous as possible

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. Abide with me; fast falls the eventide;
the darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

2. Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

3. I need thy presence every passing hour.
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me

OFFERTRY HYMN

I, the Lord of sea and sky
I have heard my people cry
All who dwell in dark and sin
My hand will save.
I who made the stars and night
I will make the darkness bright
Who will bear my light to them
Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord
Is it I Lord?
I have heard you calling in the night
I will go Lord
If you lead me
I will hold your people in my heart.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art:
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
Be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord:
Be thou my great Father, and I thy true son,
Be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

MUSINGS

Traditionally in November we consider what used to be called 'The Last Things' – Heaven, Hell and Purgatory. Many people in the past considered Purgatory a place of punishment. But it may be more helpful to consider it as a state of cleansing for those not fully ready to experience God's unconditional love. I've heard it compared to the young girl going to her Debs whose boyfriend arrives half an hour early while she is still getting ready. For her to leave immediately would turn what should be a joyous occasion into a kind of 'hell'. Waiting, in this case, involves anticipation of a greater joy to come.

Beginning Experience: B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through Death, Separation or Divorce. Do you find that you need more support than family and friends can provide? This is a healing ministry, which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn. Next residential weekend will be held 14th -16th November in All Hallows, Drumcondra, Swords Co Dublin. For further information please contact 086 0877379 or email bedublin@gmail.com
