Thought for the Week

"Being humble helps us share the burdens of others" Pope Francis

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS - Matthew 25:14-30

Jesus was angry at the way some Jewish leaders treated God's revelation of his love for his people. They had buried it by obscuring it under a multiplicity of rules. These became the centre of religious practice rather than a deep faith and trust in the forgiving love of God. What part have rules played for you in your life? Have they been life-giving?

On the level of our own personal life, faith is not given to us to be locked away, but to be 'traded' with. We trade with it when we believe in its value, trust it, and use it, bringing it into the experiences we have in daily life. Can you recall times when relying on your faith has brought you rewards?

Likewise with our own personal gifts and talents. We can fall into the trap of seeing these as our personal possession so that we can do with them as we like, rather than share them as gifts so that they can be multiplied. What is your experience of hoarding or sharing your own gifts? When did you feel most alive?

The master in the story is also someone we can celebrate. He is the kind of person who does not cling to power. He entrusts his property (his cause) to others. Perhaps you have known leaders who have done this? Have you done it yourself? As parents have you entrusted the lives of your children to them so that they can find life to the full by taking responsibility for their own lives?

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice,
Him serve with fear his praise forth tell.
Come ye before him and rejoice.

2. Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid he did us make:
We are his folk he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.

How Great Thou Art

1. Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In Whom the world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms,
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2. All praise and thanks to God
The Father, now be given,
The Son, and Spirit blest
Who reign in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is, now,
And shall be ever more

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art:
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
Be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord:
Be thou my great Father, and I thy true son,
Be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

High King of heaven, thou heaven's bright sun,
O grant me its joys after victory is won;
great Heart of my own heart, whatever befall,
still be thou my vision, O Ruler of all.
