Thought for the Week

"If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other" - Mother Teresa

THE DEEP END • HIGH HOPES

Even in a seemingly hopeless situation, hope can shine through. RTÉ recently ran a three-part series called The High Hopes Choir, which followed former conductor of the RTÉ Concert Orchestra David Brophy as he put together Ireland's first 'homeless choir'. 'In just eight weeks, through 20 rehearsals and over 1,200 cups of tea and coffee, more than 60 people, all dealing with Ireland's homeless crisis, reach beyond the stars,' explained David. While the background stories of many of the participants were heart breaking, this was a story of hope. The project made a real difference to the individual members of the choir, to the charities helped by the choir's performances, as well as changing public perceptions of what it means to be homeless in Ireland today.

There is scant hope in today's First Reading from Job – the hopelessness he feels is perfectly expressed in the line 'Lying in bed I wonder, "When will it be day?" Risen I think, "How slowly evening comes!"' Job cannot make sense of the suffering he faces, and often suffering does not make sense to us either.

Yet in today's Gospel Jesus is all about hope. We see him come into situations of great suffering and despair – hopeless situations – and bring healing to all those in need. Our Psalm tells us that the Lord heals the broken-hearted. He is the hope in our hopelessness.

St Agnes's Parent and Toddler Group

On behalf of our parish community, week in week out during school term time, the group extends a warm welcome to families with infants and young children who live in this area. This important dimension of parish ministry is only possible because of the generosity of our volunteers. To help us continue with this valuable ministry, we urgently need new volunteers. If you think this might appeal to you, please drop in any Thursday morning or leave your name and contact details in the parish office or sacristy.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN
Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
Christ be behind me, King of my heart,
Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand, Christ on my left hand,
Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
Christ in my rising, light of my life.

Christ be in all hearts thinking about me.
Christ be in all tongues telling of me.
Christ be the vision in eyes that see me,
in ears that hear me, Christ ever be.

OFFERETRY HYMN
1. As I kneel before you,
As I bow my head in prayer,
Take this day, make it yours
and fill me with your love.

Refrain: Ave Maria, Gratia plena, Dominus tecum, Benedicta tu.

2. All I have I give you,
Every dream and wish are yours,
Mother of Christ,
Mother of mine, present them to my Lord.
Refrain

RECESSIONAL HYMN
1. O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the works thy hand hath made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Ref: Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee: How great thou are, how great thou art! Then sings my soul my Saviour God to thee, How great thou art, how great thou art!

2. But when I think that God his Son not sparing, sent him to die, I scarce can take it in,
that on the cross , our burden gladly bearing,
he bled and died to take away our sins. Ref.

3. When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation, and take me home – what joy shall fill my heart! Then I shall bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim: My God, how great thou art Ref hold it firmly, lest I fall.
