MUSINGS Our Second Reading speaks of 'the immeasurable riches of God's grace'. There is a story told of Alexander the Great in which he told a favourite general to draw any amount from his treasury that he desired. The general complied and presented a bill for an enormous amount to the Treasurer, who refused to honour it. When Alexander asked the Treasurer about this, he complained about the large amount sought. But Alexander replied, 'Never mind, this general honours me and my kingdom by making such a great claim'. And so, likewise, we honour the riches of God's grace by asking in prayer for the 'big things'. Salvador Ryan, St Patrick's College,

Thought for the Week

"The Lord opened the understanding of my unbelieving heart, so that I should recall my sins" - .St Patrick

THE DEEP END • 'THOSE WHO DO WHAT IS TRUE COME TO THE LIGHT'

Out of death comes new life. Have you ever seen someone come back to life? It may have been a friend who got over a really tough break up or someone who after many months of grief started to get their life back together again. Resurrection is all around us, all the time. It is easy for us to be cynical when we think of an issue like climate justice. As Christians we are called to be resurrection focused. There are always ways to turn a situation around, to make things right, to strive for life again and again. This is the vision that Jesus gives each of us, to love and hope rather than despair.

We have been journeying this Lent with Mahlet (which means 'Life') and her family from Sebeya. Mahlet and her family have contributed nothing to the problem of climate change, yet they are the ones who suffer the most when the rains fail. They will benefit from a new irrigation system being built with help from Trócaire this year, helping to ensure food security for Mahlet's family and other's in her village. We can make a real difference to people's lives through the small choices we make: the promise to live more simply and more sustainably. It is up to us and we can choose to be part of the solution rather than the problem. Take the option for radical love, for hope, for climate justice.

'I alone cannot change the world, but I can cast a stone across the waters to create many ripples.' Mother Teresa

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

O comfort my people and calm all their fear, and tell them the time of salvation draws near.
O tell them I come to remove all their shame.
Then they will, forever, give praise to my name.

Proclaim to the cities of Judah my word;
that 'gentle yet strong is the hand of the Lord.'
I rescue the captives, my people defend,
and bring them to justice and joy without end.

All mountains and hills shall become as a plain,
for vanished are mourning and hunger and pain.
And never again shall these war against you.
Behold I come quickly to make all things new.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Holy God, we praise thy name;
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on earth thy sceptre own,
all in heaven above adore thee.
Infinite thy vast domain,
everlasting is thy reign

Hark! The loud celestial hymn, angel choirs above are raising;
cherubim and seraphim,
in unceasing chorus praising,
fill the heavens with sweet accord,
holy, holy, holy Lord.

Holy Father, holy Son,
Holy Spirit, three we name thee, while in essence only one undivided God we claim thee;
and adoring bend the knee,
while we own the mystery.
