Thought for the Week

"Happiness is not something ready made. It comes from your own actions." Dalai Lama

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS - Mark 16:15-20

In the preceding verse Jesus had rebuked the apostles for their lack of faith. Despite this he commissioned them to bring the Good News to the whole world. Witnesses to the Good News do not have to be perfect. There is encouragement to us in this. To whom have you brought good news? Who has been a messenger of good news to you?

Jesus then tells them that their witness will have quite dramatic effects, helping people to overcome demons, bring them peace and healing. Things happen when we have belief in ourselves and in God. Strong faith can enable us to meet and overcome difficulties, in ways that waverers cannot do. Perhaps you have had experience of this?

The ascension marked the end of the visible presence of Jesus with the disciples, but he was with them in other ways. 'The Lord worked with them.'

Sometimes we can experience that death is not the end of the presence of someone significant to us. We can experience the unseen presence and influence of a parent, a friend or an inspiring leader, after they have died. Has this happened for you? Have you also experienced the hidden presence of the Lord working with you?

Fr. Patrick Ryan

Fr Paddy spent his early life in his family home on Kimmage Road West. He worked with Aer Lingus for a number of years before entering Clonliffe College to train for the priesthood. After Ordination almost 30 years ago he served in the parishes of Sean McDermott Street, Skerries, Palmerstown, and Wicklow Town. In 2004 he became Parish Priest of Eadestown in Co Kildare but he had to retire in 2010 due to declining health. The funeral of Paddy Ryan took place in Eadestown on Wednesday last.

Our sympathy to his brother, sisters, and extended family.

May He Rest In Peace.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

Holy God, we praise thy Name;
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on earth thy sceptre claim,
All in heaven above adore thee;
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! the loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising,
Cherubim and seraphim,
In unceasing chorus praising;
Fill the heavens with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Bring flowers of the rarest, bring blossoms the fairest, from garden and woodland and hillside and dale; our full hearts are swelling our glad voices telling the praise of the loveliest flower of the vale

Ref: O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today, Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May. O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today, Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May

Their lady they name thee, their mistress proclaim thee Oh, grant that thy children on earth be as true as long as the bowers are radiant with flowers as long as the azure shall keep its bright hue. (R)

Blessing of Remembrance in Glasnevin Cemetery, Sunday 24th May at 3.00 pm. Each year hundreds of bereaved parents and family members come together for a Blessing Service at the Old Angels garden. Many parents travel from all over Ireland to attend and we hope to see you all again this year. We welcome in particular parents whose babies died long ago and who may have only in recent years traced their babies' grave or to those parents who have no grave. A Little Lifetime Foundation.
