Thought for the Week

I can't go back to yesterday - because I was a different person then. - Lewis Carroll

THE DEEP END • SHALOM

In the First Reading we hear Luke's dramatic and noisy account of Pentecost – violent wind and tongues of fire. In the Gospel reading, the Spirit comes as a gentle breath. Whatever form it takes or however we experience the work of the Spirit in our own lives, we can be confident that we are never without the presence of God – Pentecost is that promise realised. We can probably recall times when we were afraid, bewildered and felt like everything was falling apart. Today's Gospel shows us that even in those difficult times, there is always hope. Jesus came and stood amongst the disciples even though the doors were firmly closed. The peace that he gives them (Shalom) has a much more significant meaning than we first think. It is not simply a good wish. The peace that Jesus offers is a peace that this world cannot offer. It is a peace that comes from a loving relationship with God; a peace of body, of mind and of spirit. Jesus is asking the disciples to be an unending witness to God's love. They (and we) must be for others what Jesus has been for them.

'I flame above the beauty of the fields to signify the earth – the matter from which humanity was made. I shine in the waters to indicate the soul, for, as water suffuses the whole earth, the soul pervades the whole body. I burn in the sun and the moon to denote Wisdom, and the stars are the innumerable words of Wisdom.' St Hildegard of Bingen

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN
Come, O Creator Spirit blest,
And in our souls take up thy rest;
Come, with thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

Great Comforter, to thee we cry;
O highest gift of God most high,
O Fount of life, O Fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above!

All glory while the ages run,
be to the Father and the Son,
who rose from death, the same to thee,
O Holy Ghost eternally.

RECESSIONAL HYMN
Bring flowers of the rarest, bring blossoms the fairest, from garden and woodland and hillside and dale; our full hearts are swelling our glad voices telling the praise of the loveliest flower of the vale

O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.
O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today,
Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.

Their lady they name thee, their mistress proclaim thee Oh, grant that thy children on earth be as true as long as the bowers are radiant with flowers as long as the azure shall keep its bright hue. (R)

ST AGNES WALK AND TALK GROUP

St Agnes Parish walking club continues for the summer months. Meeting in the Parish centre at 10.30am every Tuesday morning. All Welcome.

Fr. Peter Coffey R.I.P.

The sad news broke on Tuesday morning last that Fr. Peter had died suddenly.

Fr. Peter arrived as a curate serving in the parish of Crumlin in the summer of 2002. He quickly endeared himself to our parishioners by his warm personality and friendliness. As part of the parish team he was always supportive and his sense of humour at meetings was always appreciated.

He was always a devoted Priest especially in his care of the sick and the elderly. He was Chaplain to St. Agnes' primary school where he was always loved by the staff and the children.

We offer our sincere sympathy to his brothers and extended family and to the Salesian Community in Crumlin who will miss him greatly. He was indeed a friend and good companion to all.

His funeral took place this Saturday morning after 12.00 noon Mass and he was laid to rest in the cemetery at Warrenstown college.

May He Rest In Peace.
