Vacancy for Parish Secretary

The Parish of St. Fergal, Ballywaltrim, Bray is currently recruiting a Parish Secretary. This role is offered initially on a one year fixed term 30 hours per week basis. Letters of application with enclosed Curriculum Vitae should be posted to:
Fr. Larry Behan, Parochial House, St. Fergal's Church, Killarney Road, Bray, Co. Wicklow.

Vacancy for Fundraising Officer: A Fundraising Officer is required to work as part of a team with the Diocesan initiative for financial development entitled 'Living the Joy of the Gospel – Building our Faith Community'. It is an exciting opportunity for an excellent communicator and organiser. The role is being offered on a full time temporary basis. A flexible attitude in terms of working hours is required, together with a knowledge and appreciation of the ethos and philosophy of the Catholic Church. The role involves setting parish campaign direction and managing day-to-day campaign operations as well as executing the fundraising plan and supporting parishes in achieving ambitious fundraising goals. For further information and to receive a full copy of the job description please contact the Human Resources Department, Holy Cross Diocesan Centre by email to judith.maxwell@dublindiocese.ie or by telephone 8373732. The closing date is Monday 29th June at 5.00 pm.

Thought for the Week

"Sometimes, you just need to bow your head, say a prayer and weather the storm".

THE DEEP END • TRAVELLING SOLO

In his poem Travelling Light, poet and theologian Padraig Ó Tuama talks about the different ways we have of approaching life's journey. At different times, he says, we can find ourselves travelling alone or in the dark, heavily or lightly.

Sometimes we 'travel dark', unable to conjure up an image of 'sunrise or moonrise or starlight or fire'.

Sometimes we decide to 'travel solo', forgetting 'all the others we've travelled with'.

The final verses remind us that there are times when we need to 'travel lightly': 'Because sometimes we/ need to be/ travelling lightly/ because sometimes we're in need of/ regular reminding/ that light comes in circles/ and waves/ and small moments'.

The poem concludes: 'and light/ comes to find us/ and light comes with hope.'

Life can be complicated and difficult, and it can weigh us down at times. We can end up thinking, feeling, and even acting as if we are alone on our journey.

Today's Gospel reminds us that we are not alone. Even when God seems to be sleeping, and the storm is rising, and we are in danger of being swamped, he is there. At a simple request from the disciples in the boat, Jesus quietens the wind and allays their fears. All is calm again – all it takes is a little faith and trust that we are not alone.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art:
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.

Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
Be thou ever with me, and I with thee, Lord:
Be thou my great Father, and I thy true son,
Be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

High King of heaven, thou heaven's bright sun,
O grant me its joys after victory is won;
O great Heart of my own heart, whatever befall, still be thou my vision, O Ruler of all.

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Now thank we all our God, with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done, in whom this world rejoices; who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us; and keep us still in grace, and guide us when perplexed; and free us from all ills, in this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son and him who reigns with them in highest heaven, the one Eternal God, whom earth and heaven adore; for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.
