2. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine, Gestant puellae viscera. Deum verum, genitum non factum, Venite adoremus, venete adoremus, venete adoremus dominum.

2. Away in a Manger

1. Away in a manger, no crib for a bed, the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head, the star in the bright sky looked down where he lay, the little Lord Jesus asleep in the hay.
2. The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes, But little Lord Jesus no crying he makes, I love thee Lord Jesus look down from the sky, And stay by my side until morning is nigh.

3. Be near me Lord Jesus; I ask thee to stay close by me forever and love me I pray. Bless all the dear children in thy tender care and fit us for heaven, to live with thee there.

3. While Shepherds Watched

1. While shepherds watched their flocks by night, all seated on the ground, the angel of the Lord came down, and glory shone around
2. "Fear not", said he, for mighty dread, Had seized their troubled mind. "Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and all mankind"
3. "All glory be to God on high, and on the earth be peace; Good will henceforth from heaven to men, begin and never cease.

4. Once in Royal David's City

1. Once in royal David's city Stood a lowly cattle shed, Where a mother laid her baby In a manger for his bed; Mary was that mother mild, Jesus Christ her little child.
2. He came down to earth from heaven, Who is God and Lord of all, And his shelter was a stable, And his cradle was a stall; With the poor, and mean, and lowly, Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

5. Silent Night

1. Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin, mother and child; Holy infant so tender and mild, sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.
2. Silent night, holy night, Shepherds quake at the sight, glories stream from heaven afar, Heavenly hosts sing alleluia; Christ the Saviour is born, Christ the Saviour is born.
3. Silent night, holy night, Son of God, loves pure light, Radiant beams from thy holy face, with the dawn of redeeming grace, Jesus, Lord at thy birth, Jesus Lord at thy birth.

6. Angels we have heard on high

1. Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o'er the plains, and the mountains in reply echo still their joyous strains
Refrain: Gloria in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.
2. Shepherds why this jubilee? Why your rapturous strain prolong? Say what may your tidings be, which inspire your heavenly song. Refrain

3. Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth the angels sing; come, adore on bended knee, Christ our Lord the new born king. Refrain
4. See within a manger laid, Jesus, Lord of Heaven and earth. Mary, Joseph, lend your aid, while our hearts in love we raise. Refrain

7. The First Nowell

1. The first Nowell the angel did say, was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay; in fields where they lay keeping their sheep, On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Refrain: Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel!

2. They looked up and saw a star, shining in the east, beyond them far, and to the earth it gave great light, and so it continued both day and night. Refrain.

8. O come all ye faithful

1. O come all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem; Come and behold Him born the King of Angels.

Bethlehem: A Vanishing Christian Community

Once a bustling cultural and spiritual centre hosting tourists and pilgrims from around the world, Bethlehem has become an isolated town, with boarded up shops and abandoned development projects. The age old link between Bethlehem and Jerusalem—its spiritual, cultural and economic lifeline—has effectively been severed as a result of the erection of the separation wall and the expansion of illegal settlements on land acquired by coercion. Furthermore, since July of this year the main crossing between Jerusalem and Bethlehem is now closed to Palestinians who live in East Jerusalem. A simple journey from Bethlehem to Jerusalem, only 14 kilometres [less than 10 miles] apart, can now take an entire day. The person makes their way to the northern opening in the eight-metre [25 feet] high concrete wall that surrounds this historic city. The wall cuts some four to five kilometres [2-3 miles] into the West Bank, far from the internationally recognised Green Line that delineates the border between Israel and the West Bank.

"Bethlehem, the city of peace, is a big prison. People living inside have the restricted possibilities and the psychology of prisoners....It is easier to come from Ireland to Jerusalem than for Palestinians from Bethlehem to come to Jerusalem" [Patriarch Michel Sabah]

Difficult as it is to comprehend this restriction of movement which makes it extremely difficult for Palestinian Christians from East Jerusalem to pray at the Church of the Nativity, the situation for Christians in Bethlehem to attend Sunday Mass at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem is even more difficult. No Bethlehem resident is allowed to visit Jerusalem without special permission from the Israeli army.

In effect, the communities of Bethlehem and East Jerusalem which are intimately connected through family, work, education and religion are forced to live divided by a 25foot wall that surrounds Bethlehem on three sides— unable to visit their friends and families, or go to their universities or places of worship. Although the restrictions are in part designed to provide security for the Israeli population of Jerusalem they nevertheless are in clear breach of Article 12 of the international Covenant on Civil and Political Rights which obliges Israel to ensure access to Christian, Jewish and Muslim holy places that are under its control.

The emigration is particularly marked among Bethlehem's Christian communities. Not so long ago the Christians in Bethlehem made up over 70% of the total population. The most recent statistics put the figure at 30%. Since the year 2000 alone, more than 400 Christian families have left the area. This development means that the birth place of Jesus, home to the oldest Christian Church and the oldest Christian communities in the world, will have nothing left of its history other than the cold stones of empty churches within a few generations.
