Thought for the Week

"Ability enables a man to get to the top, but it takes character to keep him there"

ANON

Things Are Not Always What They Seem

The great Italian artist Michelangelo was once accompanying a group of important friends through a back street in Florence when his professional eye espied a block of marble embedded in a mound of mud and marble chippings and covered with rubbish. Suddenly he stopped. With scant regard for the clothes he was wearing, and regardless of damage to his hands he began to clear the rubbish and the grime from the shapeless block and then struggle to manoeuvre it from its hiding place.

His friends to whom his actions seemed an exercise of futility remonstrated with him. One voicing the thoughts of all said " It's only a worthless lump of stone. Why destroy your clothes or your hands—it's foolishness." He quietly replied without even raising his head. " Indeed I may be foolish, but there's an angel in that stone and it's my task to let it out".

God's image has been imprinted on our soul's in Baptism. We are asked to respect that image by the way we live and act. We have also to respect that image in those we meet. It may be hidden behind the hurts and sense of failure in some lives. Our kindness, our sympathy, our compassion our helping hand will often help to reveal something precious in what appears to be otherwise of little worth.

MISSION SUNDAY

This year as you see elsewhere in the Newsletter almost €6,800 was collected for the missions. Many thanks for your continued generosity.

Last weekend the Church was specially decorated for the occasion. Plenty of colour and lights made a big visual display which caught the attention of visitors to our Church. Many thanks to all involved in decorating the Church.

On Saturday night we welcomed the Philipino Choir, and five of the new Irish living among us lit a candle for each of the Continents. They also brought up the special gifts. They were dressed in costumes from their native countries. It all made for a very colourful occasion and made this years Mission Sunday different and was much appreciated.

Annual Citizenship Service

This year Archbishop Diarmuid Martin will be hosting the Service in the Pro-Cathedral on Sunday 5th November at 3.30pm. The address will be given by Archbishop John Null, Church of Ireland Archbishop of Dublin. Various public figures representing the City will be present along with representatives of the various Churches. There are two tickets available for the event, if you would like to represent the Parish for the occasion. Please call to Mary in the Parish Office.

HALLOWEEN

Tuesday next is the eve of the Feast of All Saints, better known as Halloween. It should be a joyful event with dressing up, barn bracks, apples and nuts and all that is part of the Celebration. However it can be a time of accidents. Make sure children are protected at all times and properly supervised by responsible adults. Pet animals need also to be taken care of. Please keep your animals indoors.

Sorry about the Church Bells for the past week. The control system decided to end Summer time a week early causing our bells to ring in Winter mode!! That is the trouble with digital operations. They do not listen to what you say to them, or think for themselves.

Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace! How sweet the sound! That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost, but now am found; Was blind but now I see.
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved. How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed!

Receive O Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O father in thy love, These humble gifts of bread and wine; That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts already thine.
2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord. To thee on high the gifts we raise Through them may we our honour pay, Our adoration and our praise.

Stay with us Lord

- R. Stay with us Lord we pray you, Alleluia.
1. You are the bread come down from heaven; You are the food of life eternal. R.
  2. You are the light which illumines the world, Brightening our way, dispelling our darkness. R.
  3. You are the Christ the divine Son of God, You are the pledge of life eternal. R.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God, With hearts and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.
