CROSSCARE.

The Annual Collection for Crosscare the Social Care Agency for the Dublin Diocese will be at all Masses
Next Weekend 22/23rd September
It will replace the normal SHARE Collection.

CROSSCARE is involved in a wide variety of social projects in the Archdiocese of Dublin. It continues to seek to redress poverty and social exclusion. It develops new and innovative programmes and sponsors new research to help inform policies on these projects. In reaching out to those most in need CROSSCARE operates 11 programmes throughout the Diocese.

Televised Mass with Crosscare staff and volunteers: will be televised on RTE I Television this Sunday, 16th 11.15am.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

"God still loves the world through you and through me today."
Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

A Changing Diocese

This weekend priests are moving to new appointments in the Diocese. Four priests are retiring, and the SMA Fathers are returning the Parish of Neilstown in Clondalkin to the Diocese and withdrawing the priests who have served the Parish. All this creates problems for the Archbishop. In addition only one priest was ordained and he begins his ministry in Springfield in Tallaght. We wish him every blessing. Remember, that in 1961, the year I was ordained, there were twenty priests began their ministry. Nine of us remain today. The way things are going the priest-less Parish will be with us in the Diocese in the next ten years. The age profile of the priests at present in ministry is very high and in the entire country there are just thirty two priests in Parishes under the age of thirty five. The situation is becoming alarming and Dioceses and Parishes will have to face a new reality.
Keep the students in your prayers and pray for guidance to our Bishops in directing them to meet the future challenges. Families will need to encourage and pray for vocations.
Fr John

All People That On Earth Do Dwell

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; serve Him with gladness, praise Him well, come now before Him and rejoice.
2. Enter His gates with songs of praise, come to His courts, approach with joy; honour and bless Him all our days, Gladly for god our lives employ

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

Sweet Heart of Jesus.

1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.
2. Sweet heart of Jesus, Make us pure and gentle, And teach us how, To do thy blessed will; To follow close The print of thy dear footsteps, And when we fall sweet heart, oh, love us still.

Though We are Many

Refrain: Though we are many, we are one body, we who come to share this living bread; Cup of salvation, shared among all nations, nourishing us now and evermore.

1. We gather in this place round the table of the Lord. Christ's presence is revealed in our communion and his Living Word. R.
