Church Art

Many of you have expressed your views on the adornment on the Apse wall of the church – some were positive and some negative. All of your views have been heard, taken on board and discussed earlier in the week, at a meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council. In the light of some people saying that they did not understand it, it was deemed important that as a first step, we explain as best we can, its purpose and significance.

The architect, Ciarán Lynam, artist Vicki Donovan, together with many others, endeavoured to create a serene yet uplifting environment worthy for worship. The innovative approach to Art and Design is intended to complement and enhance both the existing and newly commissioned artworks.

The following is how the artist Vickie Donovan describes her creation.

'The creation of the Tabernacle and the Apse wall adornment was a great challenge both in design and production. While being acutely aware of the immensity and awe inspiring work of Richard King, I was also mindful of creating work that could stand alone. I developed the colours and shapes within the folds of the clothing depicted in King's creation. These elements have been reflected in the use of coloured enamel and hand hammered textured silver on the Tabernacle.

The inspiration for the art in the Apse comes from 'The Agony in the Garden'. I chose to use the symbol of the Tree to represent the olive tree in the Garden of Gethsemane where Jesus' disciples slept after the Last Supper. The 'Tree', is a symbol of strength and growth and has branches extending upwards in exultation. The tabernacle which emanates from the heart of the Tree is a reminder of Jesus' promise to us. 'I am with you always, yes to the end of time.' (Mat. 28:20) Within this space, the intention is that all of the pieces complement each other.'

At the Parish Pastoral Council meeting, the consensus was that we take a little time to reflect not only on the creation within the Apse space but on the entire work of refurbishment undertaken to date. All of your views will be carefully listened to by the Parish Pastoral Council who, at their September meeting will discuss in detail all of the feedback received.

The whole endeavour of the refurbishment is intended to bring a new breath of life into our place of worship. The Holy Father, Pope Francis tells us that the Church is called to evangelise and to preach the message of the Gospel in today's world. Art is, and always has been an important medium in the work of evangelisation.

The refurbishment of St. Agnes' is still a work in progress and on completion, is intended to strengthen and encourage our congregation and faith community of Crumlin, inspire a new generation of church goers and to be a place for reflection, contemplation, peace and joyful celebration of the mystery of faith.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. All people that on earth do dwell,
sing to the Lord with cheerful voice.
Him serve with fear his praise forth tell.
Come ye before him and rejoice.

2. Know that the Lord is God indeed.
Without our aid he did us make:
We are his folk he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

Queen of the May

1. Bring flowers of the rarest bring blossoms the fairest, from garden and woodland and hillside and dale; our full hearts are swelling,
our glad voices telling the praise of the loveliest flower of the vale!

R O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today! Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.
O Mary we crown thee with blossoms today, Queen of the Angels and Queen of the May.

2. Their lady they name thee,
Their mistress proclaim thee,
Ah, grant that thy children on earth be as true as long as the bowers are radiant with flowers, as long as the azure shall keep its bright hue (R)

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Jesus Christ is risen today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

Hymns of praise then let us sing, Alleluia!
Unto Christ, our heavenly king, Alleluia!
Who endured the cross and grave, Alleluia!
Sinners to redeem and save. Alleluia
