Thought for the Week

"From the cross, Christ teaches us to love even those who do not love us" - Pope Francis Twitter

THE DEEP END • A divine attribute…

Ten thousand talents today are estimated to be in the hundreds of millions! So it would be a foolish King who would allow a 'servant' to clock up debt to that mount (you would think!). Even though his debt is completely cancelled, the 'servant' is not so forgiving when it comes to his own household. One denarius would be the equivalent of the wages of a labourer for a day, so one hundred day's wages is a drop in the ocean in comparison. Those who witness these events are 'greatly distressed' and decide to protest. You don't have to look too far today to draw parallels to this parable.

Peter asks a vital question: how many times do you forgive? The answer may disturb some people but it can also liberate us if we allow it to: seventy–times–seven, i.e. an infinite number of times. This might seem idealistic and even ridiculous, but when we think more about it there is no other option. Without forgiveness we allow bitterness to engulf and torture us; zapping our energy; preventing us from being at peace with ourselves. When we only seek retribution, we enter into chaos.

'To forgive is to set a prisoner free and discover that the prisoner was you.. When we forgive evil we do not excuse it, we do not tolerate it, we do not smother it. We call it what it is, let its horror shock and stun and enrage us, and only then do we forgive it.' Lewis B. Smedes

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN
Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy, be there at our waking, and give us, we pray, your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

2. Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe, be there at our labours, and give us, we pray, your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

3. Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace, your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace, be there at our homing, and give us, we pray, your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

How Great Thou Art
1. Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In Whom the world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms,
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2. All praise and thanks to God
The Father, now be given,
The Son, and Spirit blest
Who reign in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is, now,
And shall be ever more

RECESSIONAL HYMN
. 1. Love is his word, love is his way,
Feasting with men, fasting alone,
Living and dying, rising again,
Love, only love, is his way.

Ref: Richer than gold is the love of my Lord: Better than splendour and wealth.

2. Love is his way, love is his mark,
Sharing his last Passover feast,
Christ at his table host to the twelve,
Love, only love is his mark. Ref
