MUSINGS

Despite the reminder from Augustine to the effect that 'Why wonder that you do not understand [God]? For if you understand, it is not God,' countless generations have nevertheless attempted to 'explain' the Trinity by means of analogy. Here is one traditional Irish effort: 'Three folds in cloth, yet there is but one cloth. Three joints in a finger, yet there is but one finger. Three leaves in a shamrock, yet there is but one shamrock. Frost, snow, ice, yet the three are but water. Likewise, three Persons in God, but only the one God.' Salvador Ryan, St Patrick's College, Maynooth

THE DEEP END • The Divine Dance

The Greek term perichoresis is used to describe the relationship between the three persons of the Trinity. 'Peri' means around, while 'chorein' has many layers of meaning including 'to make room for' or to 'give way'. I mention this not to get bogged down in language, but to hint at the magnitude of the depth contained in this great mystery of our faith. Over the centuries artists have made many attempts to illustrate the mystery of the Trinity, while theologians and mystics have tried to put it into words. Saint Patrick famously used the shamrock to illustrate the three persons of the Trinity. In the 12th century, St Bernard of Clairvaux described the Holy Spirit as the kiss of God, and spoke of the 'unshakeable bond' and 'indivisible unity' of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Others describe the Trinity as a sort of divine dance of love. When the new translation of the liturgy came into use, one of the terms people struggled with was 'consubstantial with the Father', which replaced 'of one being with the Father' in the Creed. In today's Gospel Jesus describes this relationship as one of love - God loved the world so much he sent his only son. The language is simple but the concept goes much deeper. Today's Second Reading ends with a blessing we often hear at the end of Mass: 'The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all'. What a beautiful blessing and description of the triune God. The unity and harmony of the Trinity provides us with the blueprint for our Christian lives.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. Come, O Creator Spirit blest,
and in our souls take up thy rest;
Come, with thy grace and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2. Great Comforter, to thee we cry;
O highest gift of God most high,
O Fount of life, O fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above!

How Great Thou Art

1. O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder Consider all the works Thy hand hath made. I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Ref: Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee; How great Thou art, how great Thou art! Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee: How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

2. When through the woods and forest glades I wander And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees; When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Holy God, we praise thy name;
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on earth thy scepter claim,
All in heaven above adore thee;
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! the loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising;
Cherubim and seraphim,
in unceasing chorus praising;
Fill the heavens with sweet accord:
Holy, holy, holy, Lord.

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS - John 3:16-181

The reading evokes contrasting images of God, a God who judges and a God who saves. We might reflect on how our image of God has changed with the years. What has helped you to believe in a God whose will is that you should have eternal life? 2 God sent his Son into the world for this purpose, that we might have eternal life. How has the story of Jesus helped you to have that kind of faith? 3 The eternal life promised is life that survives all forms of death, failure, defeat and humiliation. What has helped you to have that sense of being alive, even in painful and disappointing circumstances?
