MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

R Though we are many we are one body, we who come to share this living bread; Cup of salvation, shared among all nations,
Nourishing us now and evermore.

1. We gather in this place,
Round the table of the Lord,
Christ's presence is revealed,
In our communion and His living Word.
Ref.

2. Now our communion recalls
Christ's death and resurrection.
This living sacrifice
is our salvation now and evermore. Ref

OFFERTORY HYMN

Ref: Take our bread, we ask you, take our hearts, we love you, take our lives, O Father we are yours, we are yours.

1. Yours as we stand at the table you set, yours as we eat the bread our hearts can't forget. We are the signs of your life with us yet, we are yours, we are yours. (R)

2. Your holy people stand washed in your blood. Spirit-filled, yet hungry, we await your food. Poor though we are, we have brought ourselves to you. We are yours, we are yours. (R)

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand, Christ on my left hand,
Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
Christ in my rising, light of my heart.

Christ be in all hearts thinking about me,
Christ be on all tongues telling of me.
Christ be the vision in eyes that see me,
In ears that hear me Christ ever be.

THE DEEP END • TOEING THE LINE

Be honest – are there times when you approach Mass with a niggling feeling that something is not quite right? Perhaps you've fallen out with someone, or been less than fair in your dealings with a friend or colleague. Then there are times when we happily go along to Sunday Mass without so much as a thought to how we have lived that week. Jesus has some strong words for us all in today's Gospel. We must first reconcile with our brothers and sisters and even be on good terms with our opponents before we approach the altar. How can we be in communion with God if we are not in communion with our neighbours?

If we believe that all that is expected of us is to go to Mass on Sunday and 'follow the rules', we have missed something important along the way. Jesus does not want us to merely follow the letter of the law. Where is the joy or the challenge in that? There is more to living out our Christian life than obeying the rules. This is what Jesus challenges us to see in today's Gospel.

I read a comment recently about Pope Francis: 'He seems to have read the book'. His actions are speaking just as loud as his words, and even his words are challenging us to look at how we live and how we treat others. The Gospels are not a rule book; they are a blueprint for a radical way of life.
