Christmas Carols

Please Join with us in Singing Our Carols this Christmas and New Year

Adeste Fideles

1. Adeste fideles, laeti triumphantes,
Venite, venite in Bethlehem.
Natum videte, regem angelorum,
Venite adoremus, venete adoremus,
venete adoremus dominum.
2. Deum de Deo, lumen de lumine,
Gestant puellae viscera.
Deum verum, genitum non factum,
Venite adoremus, venete adoremus,
venete adoremus dominum.

Away in a Manger

1. Away in a manger, no crib for a bed,
the little Lord Jesus laid down his sweet head,
the star in the bright sky looked down where he lay,
the little Lord Jesus asleep in the hay.
2. The cattle are lowing, the baby awakes,
But little Lord Jesus no crying he makes,
I love thee Lord Jesus look down from the sky,
And stay by my side until morning is nigh.
3. Be near me Lord Jesus; I ask thee to stay close by me forever and love me I pray.
Bless all the dear children in thy tender care and fit us for heaven, to live with thee there.

While Shepherds Watched

1. While shepherds watched their flocks by night, all seated on the ground,
the angel of the Lord came down,
and glory shone around
2. "Fear not", said he, for mighty dread,
Had seized their troubled mind.
"Glad tidings of great joy I bring to you and all mankind"
3. "All glory be to God on high, and on the earth be peace;
Good will henceforth from heaven to men,
begin and never cease.

Once in Royal David's City

1. Once in royal David's city Stood a lowly cattle shed,
Where a mother laid her baby In a manger for his bed;
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.
2. He came down to earth from heaven,
Who is God and Lord of all, And his shelter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

Silent Night

1. Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin, mother and child;
Holy infant so tender and mild,
sleep in heavenly peace, sleep in heavenly peace.
2. Silent night, holy night, Shepherds quake at the sight,
glories stream from heaven afar,
Heavenly hosts sing alleluia;
Christ the Saviour is born, Christ the Saviour is born.
3. Silent night, holy night, Son of God, loves pure light, Radiant beams from thy holy face,
with the dawn of redeeming grace,
Jesus, Lord at thy birth, Jesus Lord at thy birth.

Angels we have heard on high

1. Angels we have heard on high, sweetly singing o'er the plains,
and the mountains in reply echo still their joyous strains

Ref: Gloria in excelsis Deo, Gloria in excelsis Deo.

2. Shepherds why this jubilee?
Why your rapturous strain prolong?
Say what may your tidings be,
which inspire your heavenly song. Ref.
3. Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth the angels sing;
come, adore on bended knee,
Christ our Lord the new born king. Ref.
4. See within a manger laid,
Jesus, Lord of Heaven and earth.
Mary, Joseph, lend your aid,
while our hearts in love we raise. Ref.

The First Nowell

1. The first Nowell the angel did say, was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
in fields where they lay keeping their sheep,
On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Ref: Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel!

2. They looked up and saw a star, shining in the east, beyond them far,
and to the earth it gave great light,
and so it continued both day and night. Ref.

O come all ye faithful

1. O come all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
Come and behold Him born the King of Angels.

Ref: O come let us adore him, O come let us adore him,
O come let us adore him, Christ the Lord.

2. Sing choirs of angels, sing in exultation,
Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above,
Glory to God in the highest. Ref.
3. Now Lord, we greet you, born this happy morning,
Jesus to you be glory given,
word of the Father now in flesh appearing. Ref.

Hark the Herald Angels Sing

1. Hark the herald angels sing, glory to the new born king, peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled;
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies, with angelic hosts proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

Ref: Hark the herald angels sing, Glory to the new born King.

2. Christ by highest heaven adored,
Christ the everlasting Lord,
late in time behold him come,
offspring of the Virgin's womb;
veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
hail the incarnate deity, pleased as man with man to dwell, Jesus our Emmanuel. Ref.

Christmas Dues.

The Dues envelope you receive through your door at Christmas And Easter helps to support the priests of the Parish.

They are an important source of income for the Clergy. All working people in the house should be asked to contribute.

Spare envelopes are available at the Church exits.

We thank you for your generosity in the past.

Coming home for Christmas

During the week I heard a woman on radio talking about how much she was looking forward to her daughter coming home to be with the family for Christmas. She says she can see and speak to her daughter on SKYPE, but there is something special when you hold her in your arms.

These days our airports are full of returning emigrants. For those living abroad over the last few weeks there has been a growing sense of excitement and anticipation. Now they are with us bringing great joy to many families. If they are with us in our Parish Church we are delighted to say to them "Welcome home to our Parish Family". May you enjoy your stay.

Bishop John Kirby, Chairperson of the Irish Episcopal Council for Emigrants writes "As we prepare to celebrate Christmas it is important that we come together to remember and pray for our emigrant population, especially those who are unable to be with their loved one this Christmas. Sadly as the economic crisis continues, increasing numbers of Irish people are leaving our shores in the hope of making a new life for themselves and their families. Their departure creates a void in Irish families and in parish communities"

Hopefully with the signs of an upturn in the Irish economy many will be home for good in the years ahead bringing joy to families and friends. May their gifts and talents help to build a better Ireland.

Fr John.

A Prayer for Emigrants.

Bless all those who have left our country and now live in other lands.
Give them a strong faith so that they will always put their trust in you
And make you known by the example of their lives.
Console those who are lonely because they are separated from those they love.
Help all missionaries who are working far from home to make your love known.
Bless our people overseas who are sick or in prison.
We pray for foreigners who are living in our country that they may experience our hospitality.
Grant your eternal welcome to our emigrants who have died and to all the dead. Amen.

Leckpatrick Parish, Derry Diocese.

Thank You.

Our Annual Christmas Fair of some weeks ago was a resounding success despite the many calls on your generosity this year and particularly in recent times. We thank our very efficient working committee, catering crew, volunteers, young and young at heart, people of the Parish, friends, family and benefactors for their unfailing support. The people of Mallow too surpassed themselves in honouring the memory of two former tireless workers by their huge contribution on the eve of the Fair. We recall too and are deeply grateful to the number of people who contributed to the Philippine Disaster and continue to do so. Our sisters there will see to it that it is used wisely. As usual we are deeply grateful to the Priests of the Parish for their interest and support. During this Christmas season a Novena of Masses will be offered for you, and your loved ones as our way of showing our gratitude for your wonderful goodness to the most vulnerable overseas. May your Christmas be a joyous one and your New Year be blessed in every way is our wish for you.

The Columban Sisters

A GOAL MILE event will take place on Christmas morning in Eamonn Ceannt Park, Sundrive Road to raise funds for the 3rd world charity GOAL. Races will be staged between 10:30 and 12 noon.
This is a family friendly event to give you an appetite for the turkey & ham !

Vincent de Paul Special Collection.

The Society wish to thank all who donated to the collection and would be grateful for further help as this year there are extra demands from people suffering hardship in a time of recession and budget cuts.

Thank you in anticipation of your generosity.
