Candle Care

Just a little reminder to take care when lighting candles. They carry with them a warning of danger. Particularly, would you please supervise children. Our shrines are ablaze with candles on certain days. We would not like you to be ablaze as well !!

Our Recently Deceased

John (Johnnie) Kirby, Stanford Green
Thomas O'Brien, Lisle Road

We express our deepest sympathies to their families at this sad time.

May They Rest in Peace. Amen

MASS HYMNS.

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy,
be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.
2. Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
be there at our labours, and give us, we pray,
your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.
3. Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace,
your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
be there at our homing, and give us, we pray
your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Ref: Take our bread, we ask you, take our hearts, we love you, take our lives, O Father we are yours, we are yours.

1. Yours as we stand at the table you set, yours as we eat the bread our hearts can't forget. We are the signs of your life with us yet, we are yours, we are yours. (R)

2. Your holy people stand washed in your blood. Spirit-filled, yet hungry, we await your food. Poor though we are, we have brought ourselves to you. We are yours, we are yours. (R)

RECESSIONAL HYMN

1. Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing:
Praise Him, praise Him, Praise Him, praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King.
2. Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same for ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise Him, praise Him, Praise Him, praise Him! Glorious in His faithfulness.

"Does your spouse have dementia?
A new study in Trinity College Dublin is looking to gain an insight into the health and wellbeing of those who care for their spouse/ partner with dementia. If you are caregiver aged over 50 years and living with a partner who has Alzheimer's disease or another form of dementia you may be interested in taking part. For more information please contact Alan Galvin on 01 896 8414" Research Assistant in the NEIL programme in the Institute of Neuroscience in Trinity College Dublin.

THE DEEP END • LOOK AT THE LAMB

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist is inviting us to look at Jesus, look closely. He calls Jesus the 'lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world'. We say these words often at Mass and today we are invited to meditate on them more closely. What does it mean? The lamb is one who is sacrificed… the sins of the world are many, broken relationships with one another at every turn. Today we are asked to think especially of Refugees and Migrants and the sins committed against them. The treatment of these groups who are marginalised, exiled from their homes due to war, famine, drought, unemployment is often unjust and is part of what Pope Francis refers to as a culture of 'slave labour'. These outcast groups are frequently treated with disrespect, racism, condemnation and resentment. How can we reconcile these situations?

Pope Francis' message for today may guide us closer to understanding the message of John the Baptist in the Gospel: 'Migrants and refugees are not pawns on the chessboard of humanity… A change of attitude towards migrants and refugees is needed on the part of everyone, moving away from attitudes of defensiveness and fear, indifference and marginalisation – all typical of a throwaway culture – towards attitudes based on a culture of encounter, the only culture capable of building a better, more just and fraternal world'. In the marginalised can we see Jesus coming towards us and say: 'Look, there is the lamb of God'? Jane Mellett, Courtesy of Intercom Magazine
