Simon of Cyrene Home Visitation.

This group was set up as a result of the parish survey in 2010. We underwent three weeks of training, Garda Clearance and volunteered to visit anyone in the parish requesting a visit. We spend approximately one hour chatting and hopefully raising the spirits of the people we visit. Arising from these visits we wanted to give an opportunity to encourage people to get out and the Thursday afternoon group was set up. If anyone would like to have a visit to their home please leave your details in the Sacristy or the Parish Office and we will get back to you. Anyone is welcome to the Thursday Afternoon Group which meets from 2.30 to 4.30pm where you can mingle and take your pick from Cards, Board Games, Knitting/Crochet, Irish Conversation or The Men's Club.

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN

1. Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy, whose trust, ever childlike, no cares could destroy,
be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.
2. Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith, whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
be there at our labours, and give us, we pray,
your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.
3. Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace,
your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
be there at our homing, and give us, we pray
your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

OFFERTORY HYMN

Ref: Take our bread, we ask you, take our hearts, we love you, take our lives, O Father we are yours, we are yours.

1. Yours as we stand at the table you set, yours as we eat the bread our hearts can't forget. We are the signs of your life with us yet, we are yours, we are yours. (R)
2. Your holy people stand washed in your blood. Spirit-filled, yet hungry, we await your food. Poor though we are, we have brought ourselves to you. We are yours, we are yours. (R)

RECESSIONAL HYMN

1. Praise, my soul, the King of Heaven;
To His feet thy tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
Evermore His praises sing:
Praise Him, praise Him, Praise Him, praise Him!
Praise the everlasting King.
2. Praise Him for His grace and favour
To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same for ever,
Slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise Him, praise Him, Praise Him, praise Him! Glorious in His faithfulness.

Aidan of Lindisfarne (died 31 August 651), known as the Apostle of Northumbria, was an Irish monk and missionary credited with restoring Christianity to Northumbria. He founded a monastic cathedral on the island of Lindisfarne, served as its first bishop, and travelled ceaselessly throughout the countryside, spreading the gospel to both the Anglo-Saxon nobility and to the socially disenfranchised (including children and slaves).

Legacy and veneration

After his death, Aidan's body was buried at Lindisfarne, beneath the abbey that he had helped found. Though his popularity waned in the coming years, "in the 10th century Glastonbury monks obtained some supposed relics of Aidan; through their influence Aidan's feast appears in the early Wessex calendars, which provide the main evidence for his cult after the age of Bede." His feast is celebrated on the anniversary of his death, 31 August. Reflecting his Irish origins, his Scottish monasticism and his ministry to the English, Aidan has been proposed as a possible patron saint of the United Kingdom. Today, Aidan's significance is still recognized in the following saying by Joseph Lightfoot, Bishop of Durham:"Augustine was the Apostle of Kent, but Aidan was the Apostle of the English."
