

The King of Love

1. The king of love, my Shepherd is,
Whose goodness fails me never:
I nothing lack if I am His,
And He is mine forever.
2. Where streams of living water flow,
To rest my soul He leads me:
Where fresh and fertile pastures grow,
With heav'nly food He feeds me.
3. And so through all my length of days,
Your goodness fails me never:
Good Shepherd may I sing Your praise,
Within Your house forever.

Now Thank we All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In Whom the world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms,
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.
2. All praise and thanks to God
The Father, now be given,
The Son, and Spirit blest
Who reign in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is, now,
And shall be for ever more

Extracts from Archbishop Diarmuid Martin's Address at official opening of Church of Saint Agnes, 19th October 2013.

This is a great occasion for the Parish of Saint Agnes in Crumlin and indeed for the entire local community. We gather to bless this Church after its refurbishment and to dedicate the new altar, which is the centre of the Church. At this new moment in the history of this parish community we re-commit and rededicate our own lives to live our faith more fully.

Crumlin played a significant role in the recent history of our city and of our diocese. The history and the faith-history of Crumlin goes back many centuries, but it is above all over the past eighty years or so that this community grew in its modern history. It was one of the first developments of the city after national independence, as people moved from the inner city to what were spacious and well-planned new housing estates.

This Church building goes back to the nineteen thirties and it has undergone extension and renewal at various stages as the population grew and later to meet the needs of the changed liturgy after the Second Vatican Council. Originally part of Rathfarnham Parish and then Terenure, Crumlin became a real mother Church for a range of new and expanding areas of the city. From Crumlin, the Parishes of Walkinstown, Greenhills and also Kimmage Manor developed and their new Churches were built through the contributions and the generosity of the mother parish and the people of Crumlin.

Around this Church building a spirit of community emerged. The Church was constructed by the generosity of the people of poorer times and it became the place where the fundamental values of the community were formed.

The true wealth of Crumlin is its people. This community in Crumlin was built up by families which had to face many challenges. Their faith in God, however, gave them the determination, despite so many obstacles, to do everything they could to give their children an opportunity which they had never had and to build up a community marked by sense of solidarity and care for each other.

The altar is the place from which we receive spiritual nourishment as we unite ourselves with the sacrifice of Jesus who gave himself for us. It is from him that we learn the importance of overcoming obsession with our own interests and remember that it was the generosity and sacrifice of the past generations who worshipped in this Church that had made this community what it is today.

Times have changed and this refurbished Church constitutes as I said a new sense of beginning and hope for the future. The rite of the dedication of an altar is among the most complex of the ceremonies of the liturgy. The altar is blessed, is anointed with oils and is incensed as through prayer we dedicate it to be exclusively a place of prayer and worship, a truly sacred space and a real sign of the presence of God among us.

As I dedicate this altar and this refurbished Church, I consign it in trust to you, the community of this parish. I know that you will care for it. I pray that this Church will be to you the place where the community encounters the presence of Jesus, who reveals God's love to you, especially at those most important moments of your lives: at baptisms and weddings and funerals and as you encounter God's mercy in the sacrament of reconciliation. May this refurbished Church be above all a place of prayer, where through the celebration of the Eucharist you experience the saving presence of Jesus in your lives and among our lives together.
