Thought for the Week

Answer the Call

The image of Jesus as the shepherd leading his flock forward has prompted the Church to dedicate this Sunday to vocations. We are asked to reflect on the need for shepherds or leaders in the Church of our own day and we are reminded of the need to pray for vocations. A vocation is a call from God to offer oneself for some form of service in the Church. It may be in one's role as a lay person or it may be in the ministerial priesthood or in the consecration of one's life as a religious.

Through our baptism and confirmation we are all called to serve the Lord and to build up God's Kingdom. We are blessed here in St. Agnes's parish, because we have so many people who offer their gifts and talents to the parish community. Ministry or service in the Church used to be regarded as the preserve of the ordained clergy while the laity were reduced to passive spectators, thank God that has now changed.

I would like to invite those of you who are not active in one of our many ministries here in the parish to think about getting involved and answering the call, your parish needs you! We are always delighted to welcome new members into any of the ministries here in the parish be it as a reader, minister of Holy Communion, the choir, the folk group, the Family Mass group, etc. We all share the responsibility both as a group and as individuals to build up the Church and to answer the call of Jesus the good shepherd, he is calling you today to offer your gifts and talents to your parish community. Will you answer the call?

Father Michael.

Where Are We Going.? [Part I]

Last September I wrote in the Newsletter about the new initiative by Archbishop Diarmuid Martin which led to the setting up of Team Ministries made up of three parishes each, in five areas of the Dioceses. St. Agnes in Crumlin works with Mourne Road and Clogher Road to form our local Team Ministry. One priest according to the Code of Canon Law is to be the Moderator of this pastoral care area. and is to direct the team and is responsible for it to the Archbishop. The Archbishop asked me to take on this responsibility. It involves coordinating the ministries across the three parishes which jointly serve more than 13,000 families. It is not an easy task in these challenging times.

The members of the team are, myself, Peter Coffey and Michael Kelly in Crumlin; Declan Blake and Denis Robinson in Mourne Road and Melvyn Mullins in Clogher Road. The other priests in the area are known as Team Assistants.

Each parish maintains its own identity. It has its Pastoral Council and Finance Committee. However we try to work together to build up the parishes and promote the Mission of the Church. Next week I will tell you how things have been progressing. So watch this space.

Praise My Soul the King of Heaven

1. Praise my soul the King of Heaven, To his feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who am I his praise to sing? Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise the everlasting King
2. Praise him for his grace and favour, To our fathers in distress: Praise him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Glorious in his faithfulness.
3. Fatherlike he tends and spares us: Well our feeble frame he knows: In his hands he gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes. Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Widely as his mercy flows

Praise to the Lord

1. Praise to the Lord, the almighty, the king of creation. O my soul praise him for he is your health and salvation. All you who hear, now to his altar draw near, joining in glad adoration
2. Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

Death of the Celtic Tiger.

We could sit around and discuss whether the death of the 'Celtic Tiger' will yield a bigger crowd at Sunday Mass, but I think it would be a useless exercise. Surely, more important is to do what we can to shine and share the light of Christian hope to dispel some of the negativity that seems to be drifting in over Ireland these times. Fr. Joseph Deegan.
