THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
"I have risen and I am with you still, Alleluia" Easter Sunday Antiphon

Prayer for Easter

Lord, The lilies are blooming in the fields The hyacinths sway in the breeze All of nature knows the greatness of this time.	Lord, Roll away the stone From broken empty lives From greed, from hate, from lies From hearts trapped within The darkest night of nights For all who live without a life.
The stone is rolled from the tomb Death that we once knew Is gone forever.	Let me run to the tomb Before the sun's rise Let my heart know surprise To see before these eyes The folded cloths The shroud of suffering Replaced by translucent beauty.
We are not born to die We are born for eternal life With death comes not the dark But the beauty of the Easter light.	Give me the joy of Magdalene The first from history To reveal the mystery Of Your Resurrection.
May I see in Easter time The promise of eternal life In every flowing stream In every sunlight beam In every field of green.	May her words re-echo As once she said That you are risen from the dead Yes, Christ is truly risen From the dead.

In every evening sky
In every bird that flies
In every child that cries
In every living thing
Your Easter Presence.

Come Christians All Rejoice

- Come Christians all, rejoice and sing, With thankful hearts your praises bring, Risen is now our Lord and King. Alleluia.
- Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.
- On Sunday morn, at break of day, The sad disciples made their way, Seeking the place where Jesus lay. Alleluia. R.
- Now let us thank the Lord most high, And with our praises fill the sky, For Christ is risen, no more to die. Alleluia. R.

In Bread We Bring you, Lord...
In bread we bring you, Lord, our bodies' labour. In wine we offer you spirit's grief We do not ask you, Lord, who is my neighbour. But stand united now, one in belief.
Oh we have gladly heard your Word, And now in answer, Lord, our gifts we bring; Our selfish hearts make true, our failing faith renew, Our lives belong to you, our Lord and King.

GALLIPOLI 1915
A public memorial service is being held on Wednesday 25 April, 2012, at 7pm in St Ann's Church, Dawson St, Dublin 2.
This service is organised annually by the New Zealand Ireland Association in memory of the NZ and Australian involvement in the First World War, and to give an opportunity to remember Irish soldiers who fought in the Gallipoli campaign.
All members of the public are welcome to attend.

Stand by Me

- When the storms of life are raging; Lord Stand by me; When the current pulls me under; Lord, stand by me; When the rising waters toss me; Like a ship upon the sea; You who rule the wind and water; Lord, stand by me
- When the tyrant yields his terror; And the armies wage their might; When the darkness overwhelms me; Lord stand by me

Refrain: Stand by me, stand by me; Lift me up from the restless sea; When I am lost, when love can't be found; When no-one cares Lord, stand by me

Though We are Many
Refrain: Though we are many, we are one body, we who come to share this living bread; Cup of salvation, shared among all nations, nourishing us now and evermore.

- We gather in this place round the table of the Lord. Christ's presence is revealed in our communion and his Living Word. R.

THANK YOU
We the Columban Sisters wish to thank the priests and people of St Agnes Parish for the warm welcome and great generosity which they showed to Sr. Mary McHugh when she gave the Mission Appeal during the weekend of 17th & 18th March on behalf of our missionary work. The amount received came to the very large sum of €6,441.18 and this money will be used to support the various apostolates which our Sisters engage in overseas.
The only return we can make for your goodness is to assure you all that we pray for you daily in our communities throughout the world. Again, our sincere thanks to all.
