Thought for the Week

"The moment I realised that God existed, I know that I could not do otherwise than to live for Him alone" - Blessed Charles de Foucauld (1858 - 1916)

Keeping a Soft Heart

"O that today you would listen to his voice; Harden not your hearts."

None of us would like to think of ourselves as having hardened hearts. And yet is it possible that in the comings and goings of our daily life, we do indeed tend to harden our hearts a little to the many demands made on us to be compassionate? We walk quickly by the person sleeping rough in the doorway, not because we are hard hearted perhaps, but because we do not know what we should do. We switch channels on the TV when news of suffering in some faraway place makes us feel both guilty and helpless. When we buy clothes or shoes that seem surprisingly cheap, maybe we push to one side of our minds questions about the conditions of the workers who made them. And while we are grateful for the thousands of women and men who come here to work looking after our sick, elderly and our children, we perhaps do not want to dwell too much on the fact that they themselves have family at home who may not see them for years on end.

So while we may not deliberately harden our hearts, perhaps the routine of our lives tends to toughen them a bit.

Part of that routine of course for many people involves taking time out to pray and worship God. And this psalm reminds us to 'listen to his voice'. But it might hint at more than that. Maybe it is only by keeping a soft heart in our encounters with the vulnerable, the weak and the troubled that we can open ourselves up to hear the voice of God speaking to us?

PARISH FINANCES

By this time most of you should have received your Family Offering Box for the new financial year which commences next weekend. The number you have on your box may well be different this year as we have endeavoured to streamline our systems and everything is now on Computer.

I wish to take opportunity to thank you for your support over the past year and to thank all our collectors and counting people for their work.

If you have not received a box please let us know by either calling to the Parish Office or phoning 01 455 5368, or return the Green Form (available beside the F.O. Box at the back of the Church). Our Annual Audit of the Parish Finances takes place for the year ending 30th June. Looking at our most recent audit the income from the Family Offering remains stable, with only a slight increase. However our day to day operating costs continue to grow.

Over the past two to three years, we have spent €2.5 Million on our Capital Programme. Our Parish Centre cost €2.1 Million and work on the Church roof cost € 350,000. the work was funded out of the sale of the land to the rear of the Church. We intend to embark on work on our Church windows which need repair work undertaken. The cost of this is not yet known, but will be substantial.

May I renew my thanks for your support and hope you will give generously as possible in the year ahead.
