Thought for the Week

"Love is shown in our deeds and not in your words" - Fr Jerome Cummings

Deeds, Not Words

On St Stephen's Day, I spent the afternoon in the home of my brother, his wife and family who were gathered together to celebrate Christmas. It was certainly an afternoon charged with energy as we had five children in our company aged from 10 years of age down to 2 and a half. Santa had come and gone but there were toys, books and games everywhere, you walked with care!!

They live in the valley between Enniskerry and Glenree. This year of course we had mild weather and a touch of sunshine to make the journey very pleasant and the company very enjoyable.

A very special feature of the afternoon was the arrival of the Wren Boys. They came all dressed up and with straw hats that cover their faces. They bring their own musical instruments, and sang and entertain us, and accept a little hospitality. The 8 - 10 men and women who make up the group give up their Stephens Day to collect for a local charity and they begin at 12.30pm and finish around 8.00pm. I admire their dedication on the day after Christmas.

This is an opportunity to say thank you to so many good people who assist charities throughout the country by giving up of their spare time to raise funds or lend a hand in many other ways to enable so much charitable work to continue.

It is an opportunity to thank all our own parishioners who help in the Parish of St Agnes by their voluntary services. They are living out the words at the top of the page in our "Thought for the Week" - Love is shown in our deeds, not in our words.

Fr John

Christmas Dues.

The Dues envelope you receive through your door at Christmas And Easter helps to support the priests of the Parish. They are an important source of income for the Clergy. All working people in the house should be asked to contribute. Spare envelopes are available at the Church exits.

We thank you for your generosity in the past.
