Thought for the Week

"Kind Words can be short and easy to speak, but their echoes are truly endless" -
Mother Teresa of Calcutta

A Little Renewed by Trust and Wonder

The rumours of his nephew's recklessness reached the old Priest. His relatives begged him to come and do something to stop the young man throwing away the family fortune in a life of debauchery. "He will listen to you," they said. "You will show him the error of his ways", so he set out to visit him.

The nephew was glad to see his uncle whom he had not met for many years, he welcomed him warmly and invited him to stay the night. All night long the uncle prayed in his room. Next morning as he was leaving he said to his nephew "I must be getting old, see how my hand shakes, will you help me please to tie my shoes?" "Gladly", said the young man and he bent down to tie the laces. "Thank you", the priest said. "You see a man becomes older and feebler day by day. Take good care of yourself" and he blessed him and left the house. Not a word had been said about the young man's lifestyle of the complaints of the relatives. But from that morning on, the dissipations of the nephew ended. Not many, I suppose would have the wisdom that priest showed in relating with his nephew, his gentleness enabled the young man to get in touch with his best self and be converted to a new way of living. The uncle's reverence for his nephew opened the latter to his responsibility to life.

God shows a deep reverence for all his creature. Made in his image and likeness we are revered by Him who, as scripture says, "delights in His people (Ps149). We experience our true selves in the presence of God who out of respect for us never coerces but rather invites our receptive attention. To be open and to respond to the non-assertive presence of God in our lives is our true vocation.

If we lack that attentive cherishing so characteristic of all true reverence, our relationship with others will be less than whole. The Gospel calls us to this deep reverence for everyone, especially 'the least'. "In as much as you have done it to the least of my brethren, you have done it to me" (Mt 25:40). We can look at incidents in the life of our Lord and see what it is to be reverent. St Paul wrote that, "He was heard for His reverence" (Heb 5:11), Will we be heard for ours?

CABIN FEVER

The phrase has been on the lips of many since Christmas. With the bad weather they have been locked away unable to get out and about and to Church also. We just want to say that we missed many of our regulars. With the better weather it is good to see you back. It is reflected in the Family Offering which dropped for a few weeks but is substantially up this week as you can see from the figures opposite. I highlight the Christmas Dues which are down 25%, but hopefully they will pick up over the coming weeks. Spare envelopes are available in the Church in case you mislaid the one sent to your home before Christmas

HAITI EARTHQUAKE

We have all watched the harrowing pictures on TV and hope that the efforts of Governments and Relief Agencies from all over the world will ease the pain for the people of one of the poorest countries in the world. I have sent € 1,000 on behalf of the Parish to Trocaire who work with local Church groups on distributing aid. If anyone wishes to donate, they may do so directly or through the Parish, who will pass on any monies received.

PARISH LITURGY GROUP

The next meeting will take place on Monday 25th January at 8.00pm in the Parish Centre. Agenda and minutes of the last meeting are available for collection in the Sacristy after Mass

Volunteering Overseas

Perhaps in a time of recession and unemployment people might like to volunteer their skills to serve overseas with a Faith based agency. The Irish Missionary Union has produced a directory of Faith based Overseas Volunteering Programmes. This directory of Church Groups is available from the Irish Missionary Union. Their address is 1st Floor, 563 Canal House, South Circular Road, Dublin 8, or you may contact them by phone at 01 492 3326 or email missionalive@imu.ie or visit their website www.imu.ie

1. Christ be near at Either Hand

1. Christ be near at either hand,
Christ behind before me stand,
Christ with me where e'er I go,
Christ around, above, below.
2. Christ be in my heart and mind,
Christ within my soul enshrined,
Christ control my wayward heart,
Christ abide and ne'er depart

2. Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast;
Bread and wine to be transformed now,
Through the action of thy priest.
Take us too Lord and transform us,
Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless,
As this host of wheat so fine,
May all stain of sin be crushed out,
Like the grape that forms the wine,
As we, too, become partakers.
In this sacrifice divine.

3. Sweet Sacrament Divine

1. Sweet Sacrament Divine, hid in thy earthly home, lo! Round thy lonely shrine, with suppliant hearts we come;
Jesus, to thee our voice we raise, in songs of love and heartfelt praise, Sweet Sacrament Divine. [R.]
2. Sweet Sacrament of Peace, dear home of every heart, where restless yearnings cease, and sorrows all depart, there in thine ear all trustfully we tell our tale of misery, Sweet Sacrament of Peace. [R.]

4. Be Thou My Vision

1. Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart,
Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art:
Be thou my best thought in the day and the night,
Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.
2. Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word,
Be thou ever with me and I with thee,
Lord: Be thou my great Father, and I thy true son,
Be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.

FEAST OF ST AGNES

We had a very good gathering to mark the celebration of our Parish Patron on Thursday last. May I thank especially Fr Frank Salmon SJ for his homily, the choir for their music at the Concelebrated Mass. A special word of thanks to Kathleen Barron for the oil painting of St Agnes, which she painted herself and presented to the Church to mark the occasion. It has now found a permanent home on the pillar between the statue of Our Lady and the Pieta on the right of the Church inside the Altar rails. Many Thanks Kathleen for all your work and we appreciate the gift very much.
