Thought for the Week

"Teach us to know and love Jesus so that we too can become capable of true love." -
Pope Benedict XVI

Ecum-mandments

This is Church Unity Week. Bishop Anthony Farquhar, who is Auxiliary Bishop of Down & Connor has written an article in The Furrow, January edition. He has been a member and later Chairman of the Episcopal Commission on Ecumenism for many years. In the early days of his role and work for Ecumenism he wrote an article in which he listed the Ten Ecu-mandments which he suggested we should all try to follow so that we would be better prepared to engage in the work of Ecumenism. I list them for your reflection

1. You shall not confuse Ecumenism with community, political or social relations.
2. You shall have a healthy pride in and respect for your own tradition.
3. You shall have a pride in and respect for other traditions as you would for your own.
4. You shall not be smug or self righteous within your own tradition.
5. You shall not be smug or self righteous in your relations with other traditions.
6. You shall not claim to represent anyone other than yourself when you have moved outside the official teaching of your own church.
7. You shall pray for unity in prayer within your own tradition.
8. You shall pray for unity in prayer between your traditions.
9. You shall be thankful for what has already been achieved ecumenically.
10. You shall smile ecumenically and some day the people of God will smile with you.

If you wish to read more, may I suggest you purchase a copy of the January Furrow in Veritas in Middle Abbey Street.

Pope Benedict XVI has nominated a priest of the Archdiocese of Dublin working in the service of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith in the Vatican, Fr. John Kennedy, as Chaplain of Honour to the Pope, with the title of Monsignor.

Monsignor Kennedy is a native of Clontarf Dublin. He was ordained in 1993. He began his ministry here in St. Agnes, where he served as curate before being appointed as curate in Francis St. He then asked to undertake post graduate studies in Canon Law in Rome in 1998. He entered the service of the Holy See in September 2002 under the then Prefect, Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger, now Pope Benedict XVI.

I know that John is well remembered here in St. Agnes' and still has good friends in the Parish. You never know, he could be a future Archbishop of Dublin. I better be nice to him—he might be my boss in years to come.

Fr. John.

Feast of St. Agnes

Monday 21st January is the Feast of St. Agnes, Patron Saint of Our Parish. She came from a wealthy background and was noted for her beauty. She was martyred for her virginity in the last persecution in Rome in the early fourth century. She is the Patron Saint of engaged couples, gardeners and young girls.

There is another church dedicated to her in Andersonstown, Belfast. Does anybody know of any other churches sharing the same Saint as Patron in Ireland?

We welcome them into our Christian Community and wish them every blessing in their lives ahead.

1. Christ be near at Either Hand

1. Christ be near at either hand, Christ behind before me stand, Christ with me where e'er I go, Christ around, above, below.
2. Christ be in my heart and mind, Christ within my soul enshrined, Christ control my wayward heart, Christ abide and ne'er depart

2. Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

3. Sweet Sacrament Divine

1. Sweet Sacrament Divine, hid in thy earthly home, lo! Round thy lonely shrine, with suppliant hearts we come; Jesus, to thee our voice we raise, in songs of love and heartfelt praise, Sweet Sacrament Divine. [R.]
2. Sweet Sacrament of Peace, dear home of every heart, where restless yearnings cease, and sorrows all depart, there in thine ear all trustfully we tell our tale of misery, Sweet Sacrament of Peace. [R.]

4. Be Thou My Vision

1. Be thou my vision, O Lord of my heart, Be all else but naught to me, save that thou art: Be thou my best thought in the day and the night, Both waking and sleeping, thy presence my light.
2. Be thou my wisdom, be thou my true word, Be thou ever with me and I with thee, Lord: Be thou my great Father, and I thy true son, Be thou in me dwelling, and I with thee one.
