Thought for the Week

"The World is not looking in wonders, but in a sense of wonder"-G.K. Chesterton

Lent is Giving Up in order to Give

The Irish Famine was such a harrowing experience that the memory of it has been burned into our national consciousness. Time has not fully insulated us from its horrors more than a hundred and sixty plus years later. For many people in the world now, famine is the same as we experienced in Ireland. Millions are facing starvation. Interwoven with the hunger for food and health is the hunger for education. Half the adult population of the world are illiterate. Illiteracy, as Pope Paul VI said, is a form of starvation too. It starves people of the knowledge and the skills they need to fight physical hunger and build a better world.

We make sacrifices for lent by giving up sweets, cigarettes or drink. Do we do it for purely personal reasons—to lose weight, or for health reasons? Do we give up things without giving? Do we forget the millions who would very gladly fast if they weren't already starving? Thousands of years ago, God said, through the prophet Isaiah: "To share your bread with the hungry is fast that pleases me" Is58:6-8. Christ even went further by identifying with those in need: "For I was hungry and you gave me food, was thirsty and you gave me drink...naked and you clothed me.." Mt 25-35.

There's something about fasting for others which gives it the edge over fasting for oneself. What better way to overcome those sins of selfishness than by going without for the sake of others. What better way to overcome false pride and superiority than by recognising that the most deprived people on the other side of the world are our brothers and sisters.

Give generously this year to the poor of the world. Trocaire, Concern and many others are calling on our generosity. No sacrifice, no fast we make this Lent, however small will go unrewarded. Our Lent should be their Easter, our dying to self their Resurrection.

The Alexian Brothers's Prayer to Christ the Healer

In the comfort of your love,
 I pour out to you, my Saviour,
 the memories that haunt me,
 the anxieties that perplex me,
 the fears that stifle me,
 the sickness that prevails upon me,
 and the frustration of all the pain
 that weaves about within me.
 Lord, help me to see your peace in my turmoil,
 your compassion in my sorrow,
 your forgiveness in my weakness,
 and, your love in my need.
 Touch me, O Lord, with your healing power and strength. Amen

LIGHT LAUGHTER

Your editor has received some items taken from Church magazines and newsletters which will give you a laugh. They will appear as space permits.

"The sermon this morning is JESUS WALKS ON WATER, The sermon tonight is SEARCHING FOR JESUS

Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost but now am found: Was blind but now I see.
2. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear. And grace my fears relieved. How precious did that grace appear: The hour I first believed
3. Thro' many dangers, toils and snares I have already come, 'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far and grace will lead me home.

Receive O Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O Father in thy love, These humble gifts of bread and wine; That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts already thine.
2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord, to thee on high the gifts we raise: through them may we our honour pay, our adoration and our praise

The Lord's My Shepherd

1. The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want, He makes me down to lie, In pastures green he leadeth me, The quite waters by.
2. My soul he doth restore again, And me to walk doth make. Within the paths of righteousness, E'en for his own name's sake.
3. Goodness and mercy all my life, shall surely follow me; and in God's house for evermore, my dwelling place shall be.

How Great Thou Art

1. O Lord my God when I in awesome wonder, consider all the works thy hand hath made, I see the stars I hear the mighty thunder thy power through-out the universe displayed.

Ref: Then sings my soul, my saviour God to thee, how great thou art, how great thou art, then sings my souls my saviour God to thee How great thou art, how great thou art.

2. When Christ shall come with shouts of acclamation, and take me home-what joy shall fill my heart. Then shall I bow in humble adoration, and there proclaim, My God how great Thou art. R
