Thought for the Week

"Bear one another's burdens" - St Paul, because a burden shared is a burden lightened

Fullness of Life

On Saturday 7th May after being present for the First Communions of the Children of St Agnes School and Scoil Cholm, I went to join the family of my grandnephew, Cillian, who made his Communion on the same day. When I arrived at the house there were about 10 boys engaged in a robust game of football in the back garden. Cillian had just been dispatched to his room to change out of his First Communion suit. He then rejoined the game and the numbers increased with the addition of some of the dads. For the next hour it was all life and energy. It is great to be young.

In the past week there was a report in the media of a 10 year project to assess the health and lifestyles of an 8,000 sample of our older citizens, who will be interviewed over the coming years to monitor progress in the years ahead. What came from the initial report after 2 years was that generally they cared for their grandchildren, enjoyed life and were generally a very contented group. They too, in the majority of cases were active and fulfilled. Needless to say they were not belting footballs with the same energy as their grandchildren.

When I opened the Gospel for this Sunday I was struck by the words of Scripture. Jesus said "I have come in order that you might have life - life in all its fullness." is this not an invitation to review our own spiritual well being? We need to evaluate our spiritual health from year to year, and perhaps reflect for ourselves on the words of today's Gospel. Are we content with what we find?

Fr John

Praise My Soul The King of Heaven

1. Praise my soul the King of Heaven, To his feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who am I his praise to sing?
R. Praise him. Praise him, Praise him. Praise the everlasting King.
2. Praise him for his grace and favour To our fathers in distress: Praise him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Glorious in his faithfulness. R.
3. Fatherlike He tends and spares us: well our feeble frame He knows: in His hands He gently bears us, rescuing us from all our foes. Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him widely as His mercy flows. R.

Praise to the Lord

1. Praise to the Lord the almighty, the king of creation. O my soul praise him for he is your health and salvation. All you who hear, now to his altar draw near, joining in glad adoration.
2. Praise to the Lord let us offer our gifts at his altar; Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter, Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast victims with him on the altar

Vocations Sunday

This Sunday is also called Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus the Shepherd needs disciples who will follow Him and Shepherd the flock. It is a day to remind us of the need for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Let us pray today especially for this intention. Lord, Send workers to your vineyard.

Next weekend at all Masses there will be a special collection for the formation of Students for the priesthood in the Diocese of Dublin. It will replace the SHARE Collection.
