Thought for the Week

"We are made for the contemplation of heaven and created to come to the knowledge of God" - St Clement of Alexandria

Saints for Our Time

In October Pope Benedict canonized two Saints who speak to us today as we celebrate the Feast of All Saints. One was Damien of Molokai—the leper priest. In the time of Damien lepers were the rejects of society just like in the time of Jesus. Damien gave his total life to care and provide for those men, women and children who were exiled to their lonely island. As you may recall he caught the disease himself so that he could preach at the end of his life " we lepers". The illness nowadays can be controlled, however in his time it was a death sentence and during his last illness he refused to desert his fellow lepers. Damien died in 1889 and has been called the Mother Teresa of his generation. He is an example to us of dedication and commitment.

The second saint I wish to highlight for you today is St Jeanne Jugan, a native of France and foundress of the little Sisters of the Poor. She died ten years before St Damien. Both were canonized on the same day, 11th October 2009. Jeanne always, even from her early years, had a love for the poor and elderly. When she was young a beggar called to the door, and she gave up her bed and slept on the floor. When she founded the Little Sisters, she was joined by others, so that the work grew. After some years, she took over the direction of the novices, so that by the time she died many did not know she was the founder. She was self effacing.

In Ireland, the good work continues in Sybil Hill in Killester and Roebuck in Clonskeagh within the Diocese of Dublin. If you ever have occasion to visit their residences you can feel the love and lavish care given to the residents of these homes. The people there seem very content and happy and the wonderful work of the St Jeanne Jugan continues to this day. Thanks be to god.
Fr John

DRINK DRIVING

A new Road Traffic Bill will propose a reduction in the blood alcohol concentration (BAC) limit for drivers. They assert the reduction will reduce the risk of collisions, save lives and prevent injuries. They have set up a dedicated web site at www.drinkdriving.ie to provide everyone who is interested with factual information on this important issue.

Christ Be Near at Either Hand

- Christ be near at either hand, Christ behind before me stand, Christ with me where e'er I go, Christ around, above, below.
- Christ be in my heart and mind, Christ within my soul enshrined, Christ control my wayward heart, Christ abide and ne'er depart.
- Christ my life and only way, Christ my lantern night and day, Christ be my unchanging friend, Guide and shepherd to the end

Praise to the Lord

- Praise to the Lord the almighty, the king of creation. O my soul praise him for he is your health and salvation. All you who hear, now to his altar draw near, joining in Glad adoration.
- Praise to the Lord let us offer our gifts at his altar; Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter, Christ the high priest bids us all join in his feast victims with him on the altar.
