THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK
 "A great oak is only a little nut that held its ground" - Anon.

Praying for the Dead during November

It is during November that the Church meditates on the Communion of Saints, which is the charitable link with the faithful who have already reached heaven (Church Triumphant), the faithful departed who are still expiating their sins in Purgatory (Church Suffering) and of the pilgrim faithful here on earth (Church Militant). "In this wonderful exchange, the holiness of one profits others, well beyond the harm that the sin of one could cause others. Thus recourse to the communion of saints lets the contrite sinner be more promptly and efficaciously purified of the punishments for sin". (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1475).

The need and duty of prayer for the departed souls has been acknowledged by the Church at all times. It is recommended in the Scriptures of the Old Testament: "It is therefore a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins." (2 Macch 12:46) This duty has found expression not only in public and private prayers but especially in the offering of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the repose of souls. Throughout November the Church prays for all who are in the Purgatory, waiting for the day when they will join the company of the saints in heaven. The celebration of Mass is the highest means the Church can provide for the dead, but we can also help them through our prayers, sufferings and penances. November is a special time when we remember our loved ones who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith, and we pray that one day we will all be together again in the loving kingdom of God.

Note on the introduction of the New Roman Missal.
When will we be using the new edition of the Roman Missal?

The texts of the new edition of the Roman Missal are being introduced in two phases to avoid too much change happening at once. Since September St. Agnes Church began to use the new translations of the people's prayers and responses at Mass, for example, the Confiteor, The Gloria and the Creed.

What difference can we expect in the second phase?

From the first Sunday of Advent [27th Nov.] congregations and priests will use the texts of the new edition of the Roman Missal for celebration at Mass. While the structure and pattern of the Mass will remain the same and the readings will be unchanged, the texts of prayers recited by the priest will sound different on our ears. Over time, as the new style of language becomes familiar to us it is very much hoped that we will come to appreciate both the richness and depth of our prayers at Mass.

St. Agnes' Church Choir.

We are looking for new members for the above choir. We practise on Tuesday nights in the Church and sing at 12noon Mass each Sunday [12.30pm next year]. No previous experience necessary-only to have an interest in singing. We are now preparing for Christmas and all new members will be most welcome. Contact Maura Ryan P.R.O. 452 5596

Catholic Youth Care - Annual Collection takes place this Sunday 13th November 2011 and will replace the SHARE collection at all Masses.

Praise My Soul The King of Heaven

1. Praise my soul the King of Heaven, To his feet your tribute bring. Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven, Who am I his praise to sing? Praise him. Praise him, Praise the everlasting King.
2. Praise him for his grace and favour, To our fathers in distress: Praise him still the same forever, Slow to chide and swift to bless. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Praise him. Glorious in his faithfulness.
3. Fatherlike he tends and spares us; well our feeble frame he knows: In His hands he gently bears us, Rescues us from all our foes. Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Praise Him, Widely as His mercy flows.

Receive O Father in Thy Love

1. Receive O Father in thy love, These humble gifts of bread and wine; That with ourselves we offer thee, Returning gifts already thine.
2. Behold this host and chalice, Lord, to thee on high the gifts we raise: through them may we our honour pay, our adoration and our praise
