Silver Jubilee of Active Retirement Association

On Saturday the 18th July, the Crumlin Active Retirement Association under the Chairmanship of Dymphna Walsh and the hostess Netta Elgerson held a party in the Springfield Hotel, Lucan. The event was the celebration of 25 years since the association was founded in 1984.

One hundred and sixty members were treated to a sumptuous meal; danced the night away to the strains of the Brian McCarthy trio. Thirty six were fortunate enough to win a lovely prize. All in all it was lauded a wonderful night.

Our honoured guests were Mr Tom O'Mahony, President Active Retirement Ireland and his wife Anne, Mr Ben Briscoe, retired politician and early benefactor of the Association. But for a 'Senior' Moment we would have had Fr John Deasy with us! However he was there in spirit! It is to him we are indebted for the lovely premises in which we hold our activities.

Maura Rawlins, Netta Elgarson, Dymphna Walsh, Rose Kearns and Peter Meade were active all night keeping up the momentum while the remaining members of the committee were on 'stand-by' if needed.

Next October, also in relation to our Anniversary we are having a party to celebrate all those members who have reached eighty years of age. Please God it will also be a success.

Our night in the Springfield was paid for mostly out of club funds but each person contributed €15 towards the expenses. Morton Coaches took us there and back with their customary punctuality and courtesy.

Una McCrystal.

ACCORD

Is aware of the considerable increase in the number of people presenting for our counselling service who are experiencing financial difficulties. We are offering an opportunity to everyone to attend workshops to help deal with these real issues. Our aim is to help people move from despair to hope through the provision of information and the development of practical skills.

The first week, Monday Sept 21st will consist of a launch by the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Emer Costello and an address by Bishop William Walsh, President of ACCORD and Ruth Barror, National Director of ACCORD.

This will be followed each Monday, (Sep 28th, Oct 5th & Oct 12th) with workshops which will explore ways of dealing with unemployment and its effects on relationships and family life. We will outline ways to increase self esteem, share information, and discover methods to develop personal skills and shape the future with hope. The workshops will be held in the The Clarion Hotel, IFSC, Excise Walk, Dublin 1. Admission to all events is free

There will also be information stands available at the workshops from such organizations as: Adult Education, Citizens Information, FAS, Vincent De Paul, MABS, ACCORD, INOU, Toastmasters, Mental Health Ireland, Volunteer Ireland, and AONTAS. All People That On Earth Do Dwell

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; serve Him with gladness, praise Him well, come now before Him and rejoice.

2. Enter His gates with songs of praise, come to His courts, approach with joy; honour and bless Him all our days, Gladly for god our lives employ.

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased

2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

Sweet Heart of Jesus.

1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.

2. Sweet heart of Jesus, Make us know and love thee, Unfold to us The treasures of your grace; That so our hearts, From things on earth uplifted, May long alone To gaze upon your face.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God, With heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.

2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.

Windows Update

Work on the Church Windows is proceeding. The work includes re-leading of many windows, especially those that are south facing. These have to be removed and taken to Derry where the work is undertaken. It is hoped to have the work complete before the end of October. Sorry for the inconvenience, but it is essential renewal work as many of the windows had warped severely and we are also closing permanently many of the openings which are the source of the draughts that parishioners experience

Enrolment Mass for First Holy Communion

On this Sunday, 20th September, St Agnes' Primary school will have their enrolment mass during the 10 o'clock Family Mass. They will be followed by St Damian's on 27th Sept and Scoil Colm on 4th Oct. A parish based programme of preparation for First Holy Communion called Do This in Memory has been started in Crumlin for the first time. This programme has been strongly encouraged by Archbishop Diarmuid Martin for use in all parishes in the diocese. The programme recognises the hard work and dedication that the schools and teachers are already doing in preparing children to receive the sacraments. It seeks to build on this by inviting more participation with the parents/guardians and the parish. It has long been recognised that a three way partnership between the home, the school and the parish is the most effective way of passing on the faith to the next generation.
