THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"Even a happy life cannot be without a measure of darkness, and the word 'happy' would lose its meaning if it were not balanced by sadness." Carl Jung

And With your What?

Last weekend was the first weekend to celebrate Mass using the new congregational responses from the new edition of the Missal. The order and structure of the Mass has not changed and the readings at Mass have not changed. But it will take time for us to become familiar with the prayers which have changed, and from the first Sunday of Advent the priest's part will also change. The most obvious change that you will notice is at the beginning and end of Mass, before the Gospel, at the beginning of the preface and at the sign of peace. So where does the response, 'And with your spirit' come from? It reminds us of the greetings of St. Paul, for example, to Timothy: 'The Lord be with your spirit' (2 Tim 4:22), a recognition of the spirit that is among us as Christians, a spirit that we must live, and, in greeting one another, it proclaims the presence of Christ among us.

One of the words which RTE News were asks parishioners last Sunday as they came out of Mass was the word 'consubstantial', which is a word we find in the Creed. At the Council of Nicea in the year 325 AD, the Greek word homoousios was used to express the doctrine that Jesus, the Son of God is of the same essential Being and substance as the Father. In Latin the term is consubstantialis, in English 'consubstantial' a theological or technical word to express our faith in the person and nature of Christ. So if you meet a reporter for RTE News, now you can tell them what consubstantial means! It is going to take some time for the new changes to take root in our heads but by this time next year we will wonder what all the fuss was about.

The Emmaus Vocation Journey – Is Priesthood for YOU?

If you ever ponder the question in your heart...Am I being called to the priesthood?, then this group is for you. We invite the Lord to walk with us and through prayer, reflection and facilitated discussion for you to have a chance to delve further into the mystery of Christ's calling.

The course takes place over four Saturday mornings in Dublin City centre in Oct, Nov, Dec and Feb and one weekend in Jan. in Maynooth. There is no cost involved.

The Emmaus Vocation Journey is designed to allow the participants to form a kind of faith-community, in which each person will be supported by others in the process of discernment. For that reason, participants are invited to make a commitment to the whole programme. For more information www.priest.ie/news or contact Fr Eamonn @ 086 8346071 or vocations@dublindiocese.ie

Mass For the Sick

This year the Annual Ceremony will take place at the 7.00pm Evening Mass next Saturday 24th September. If you require transport to the Church please leave your name and address with Mary in the Parish Office (Ph 4555368) and she will pass on the details to the Order of Malta.

We would ask those who are able to walk to the altar steps to come forward for the anointing of the sick. If you are not mobile, please remain in your seat preferably at the end of the seat and the priest will come to you to anoint you.

All People That On Earth Do Dwell

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; serve Him with gladness, praise Him well, come now before Him and rejoice.
2. Enter His gates with songs of praise, come to His courts, approach with joy; honour and bless Him all our days, Gladly for god our lives employ

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

Sweet Heart of Jesus.

1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.
2. Sweet heart of Jesus, Make us pure and gentle, And teach us how, To do thy blessed will; To follow close The print of thy dear footsteps, And when we fall sweet heart, oh, love us still.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God, With heart and hands and voices, Who wondrous things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.

THE PRIORY INSTITUTE - A Dominican Centre for Theological Studies

- ◆ Do you have a vocation to be active in your church or parish?
- ◆ Do you wonder about the world and your place in it, how to make sense of it all?
- ◆ Do you seek a deeper understanding of God, your faith, and God's call on your life?

Studying theology is a great way to grow in faith and undergo personal spiritual formation, but circumstances may prevent you from studying on a traditional campus. That's why the Irish Dominicans founded The Priory Institute, allowing you to be part of a large network of people of all ages and backgrounds who are on this journey together.

Here at The Priory Institute, we offer a variety of academic and non-academic programmes, allowing you to further your theological education from the comfort of your own home.
Our higher certificate in theology and degree programmes are accredited and recognised nationally and internationally.

Please contact us for further information:

You may send us an e-Mail to enquiries@prioryinstitute.com or phone 01-404 8124 to discuss any queries that you may have. Our postal address is: The Priory Institute, Tallaght Village, Dublin 24

We also invite you to visit our website:
