THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
"Don't let yesterday use up too much of today." Will Rogers

My First Contribution...

As I make my first contribution to our Parish Newsletter, I would like first of all to express a deep sense of gratitude to the many parishioners who have offered me such a warm welcome since my arrival at St Agnes's. I am very heartened by that level of generosity on your part and I look forward to getting to know you all as time goes on. I would like also to pay tribute to Father John Deasy and to thank him for the wonderful work he has done in the parish over many years.

I am greatly encouraged by the many resources that we have in the multitude of people who are involved in various ministries ; Readers/ Collectors/Parish Council, Sacristans, Music Ministry etc. Too many to name, but I do wish to include ALL who work to make up the Parish; ALL who are Parish Builders.

Change can sometimes be disconcerting and even threatening. The Church itself is going through dramatic change. As a faith community we need to embrace change with courage and conviction, difficult though it may be. For example the proposed reduction in the number of Masses in the Parish in the New Year should not be considered an inconvenience but maybe an opportunity to concentrate our resources, particularly into the Sunday Eucharistic celebration which after all, is the high point of the week for us.

As a faith family, we have a responsibility indeed an obligation to nurture each other in positives ways; our baptism calls us to pave a path which will continue to enable the community in Crumlin to thrive and grow strong in their faith. All of our efforts should strive to ensure a vibrant Church for the future, a most beautiful legacy for our children and our grand-children. For my own part, I look forward to working with my priest colleagues and with you, in building on all the strength's and gifts given to us.

Report from Rome.
 As I begin my second week in the Irish College where twenty four Priests from Ireland are gathered for the Study Course I send greetings to the good people of the Parish. This morning Wednesday I said Mass in the Irish Chapel in the Crypt of St. Peters. It is dedicated to St. Columbanus and the Mosaic on the back wall shows the journey of St. Columbanus in the company of other monks from Bangor where he lived as a young monk to Bobbio where he founded the Abbey where he died. He was one of the Great Irish Missionaries and the Chapel there in St. Peters was established in his honour sixty years ago. This morning I offered the mass for all in St. Agnes Parish.
Fr. John.

Pathways Course.
Courses at All Hallows: The Pathways Course: Have you ever thought about exploring your faith? Or wished that you could broaden your understanding of your faith? Perhaps you are feeling challenged by questions your children or grandchildren are asking about God and the meaning of faith for which you feel you have 'no answers'. Perhaps you are feeling challenged by all that is happening in the Irish Church right now. If so, Pathways may be the course for you.
 Pathways is a course for adults who wish to explore their faith. There are no exams on this course, no written work. The only qualification is an openness to listening to others. For more information please phone 01 8373745 or email us at pathways@allhallows.ie

All People That On Earth Do Dwell
 1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice; serve Him with gladness, praise Him well, come now before Him and rejoice.
 2. Enter His gates with songs of praise, come to His courts, approach with joy; honour and bless Him all our days, Gladly for god our lives employ

Sweet Heart of Jesus.
 1. Sweet heart of Jesus, Fount of love and mercy, Today we come, thy blessing to implore; O touch our hearts, So cold and so ungrateful, And make them Lord, Thine own for evermore.
 2. Sweet heart of Jesus, Make us pure and gentle, And teach us how, To do thy blessed will; To follow close The print of thy dear footsteps, And when we fall sweet heart, oh, love us still.

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer
 1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
 2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

Now Thank We All Our God
 1. Now thank we all our God, With heart and hands and voices, Who wonderful things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
 2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.

The new Liturgy Order of the Mass
 Due to the limited supply of laminated cards we would be most grateful if you would take care of them by not bending them and by leaving them in the basket at the exit for use at the following Mass
