Mass for the Sick.

We welcome this Saturday the sick and the elderly who have come to

St. Agnes' Church for the Ceremony of the Anointing of the Sick at the Vigil Mass. You are in our prayers this evening. Many thanks to all who have helped at the Mass.

This weekend we celebrate and acknowledge the work and dedication of our priest. Celebrating priesthood Sunday has taken place in other countries This is the first time in Ireland. We already have "Mothers Day". "Fathers Day" And "Children's Day". So why not show your appreciation of the work of priest in your Parish Community? They often work long hours and way beyond normal retirement age. With less priests around the work has become more demanding and for some stressful as we try to meet the needs of our parishioners. On a personal note may I say thank you to all in the Parish for your kindness and support. To be a priest is often challenging. But it is a work I would not exchange. I have been very happy as a priest and my hope is that families will encourage Vocation so that in the years ahead there will be good priests to serve our parish communities.

Fr. John.

A Prayer for Our Priests.

You came from among us to be, for us, one who serves.

We thank you for ministering Christ to us and helping us minister Christ to each other.

We are grateful for the many gifts you bring to our community: for drawing us together in worship, for visiting us in our homes, for comforting us in sickness, for showing us compassion, for blessing our marriage, for baptising our children, for confirming us in our calling, for supporting us in bereavement, for helping us to grow in faith, for encouraging us to take the initiative, for helping the whole community realise God's presence among us.

For our part, we pray that we may always be attentive to your needs and never take you for granted. You, like us, need friendship and love, welcome and sense of belonging, kind words and acts of thoughtfulness.

We pray, also, for the priests who have wounded priesthood. May we be willing to forgive and may they be open to healing. Let us support one another during times of crisis.

God Our Father, we ask You to bless our priests and confirm them in their calling. Give them the gifts they need to respond with generosity and a joyful heart.

We offer this prayer for our priests, who is our brother and friend.

St Therese of the Child Jesus

As promised last week I wish to relate an event that happened in my life a few years ago.

The relics of St. Therese visited Ireland, but I did not visit any venue where they were honoured and venerated.

In October I was with another priest on a visit to Madrid. Like a good tourist we visited the Cathedral one afternoon. To my surprise our visit coincided with the veneration of the relics there.

We joined a line of people and after venerating the relics we were directed out a side door.

There I experienced a strange perfume of roses then I remembered her words from her autobiography when she said when she was in Heaven 'she would send down a shower of roses' this was for me a special privilege.

St. Therese 's feast day is next Wednesday the 1st of October, the beginning of Mission Month. She along with St. Francis Xavier are patrons of the missions.

Fr. John

Congratulations.

One of our parishioners Gerard Carty of John McCormack Avenue recently completed and won the swim from Rathlin Island to Ballycastle Bay in Co. Antrim. 19 swimmers braved the challenge in rough seas and cold water. Not all finished the 7 mile journey. Gerard :

Amazing Grace

1. Amazing grace how sweet the sound, That saved a wretch like me! I once was lost but now am found: Was blind but now I see.
2. Twas grace that taught my heart to fear. And grace my fears relieved. How precious did that grace appear: The hour I first believed

Lord Accept the Gifts we offer

1. Lord, accept the gifts we offer, at this Eucharistic feast; Bread and wine to be transformed now, Through the action of thy priest. Take us too Lord and transform us, Be thy grace in us increased
2. May our souls be pure and spotless, As this host of wheat so fine, May all stain of sin be crushed out, Like the grape that forms the wine, As we, too, become partakers. In this sacrifice divine.

The King of Love my Shepherd

1. The King of love my Shepherd is, Whose goodness faileth never; I nothing lack if I am His And He is mine for ever.
2. Where streams of living water flow My ransomed soul He leadeth, And where the verdant pastures grow With food celestial feedeth.

Now Thank We All Our God

1. Now thank we all our God, With heart and hands and voices, Who wonderous things has done, In whom the world rejoices, Who from our mother's arms, Has blessed us on our way, With countless gifts of love, And still is ours today.
2. O may this bounteous God, Through all our lives be near us, With ever joyful hearts, And blessed peace to cheer us, And keep us in his grace, And guide us when perplexed, And free us from all ills, In this world and the next.
