Thought for the Week

May today bring you the joy that escaped from your reach yesterday; the focus to strive for a better tomorrow; the motivation to live victoriously today

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS - Matthew 22:1-14

Scripture often speaks of the kingdom of God as a banquet. The image of people being at a meal where everyone is happy and welcome and where all hunger and thirst is satisfied gets across the idea that God loves, accepts and welcomes us and wants us to make that experience available to one another. Think of times in your life when you have had 'banquet' experiences and when you have felt accepted and loved?

The host enlists the help of his servants to invite people to the banquet. We are commissioned by the Lord to invite people to the banquet of the kingdom, to the fullness of life – as parents, teachers, friends, etc. What has it been like for you to play a part in leading others to a fuller life?

As in the parable last week there is a message about being alert to invitations that offer a fuller life and the danger of losing out if we neglect to respond to such invitations. Perhaps there have been opportunities offered to you that you missed, and now regret. Think also of the blessings you received because you seized the moment and took an opportunity that presented itself.

The second parable puts the focus on how we respond to invitations. Some invitations are ones that challenge us to change, to conversion, to put on a 'wedding garment'. What has been your experience of changing in response to an invitation you received?

MASS HYMNS

ENTRANCE HYMN
1. Praise, my soul, the King of heaven;
to his feet your tribute bring.
Ransomed, healed, restored, forgiven,
evermore his praises sing.
Praise him, Praise him, Praise him, Praise him.
Praise the everlasting King!

2. Praise him for his grace and favour to his people in distress.
Praise him, still the same for ever,
slow to chide, and swift to bless.
Praise him, Praise him, Praise him, Praise him.
Glorious in his faithfulness!

3. Father like he tends and spares us;
well our feeble frame he knows.
In his hand he gently bears us,
rescues us from all our foes.
Praise him, Praise him, Praise him, Praise him.
Widely yet his mercy flows!

HOW GREAT THOU ART
1. Now thank we all our God,
With heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things has done,
In Whom the world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms,
Has blessed us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours today.

2. All praise and thanks to God
The Father, now be given,
The Son, and Spirit blest
Who reign in highest heaven,
The one eternal God,
Whom earth and heaven adore;
For thus it was, is, now,
And shall be ever more

RECESSIONAL HYMN
Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people,
light for the world to see.
Ref: Christ, be our light! Shine in our hearts.
Shine through the darkness.
Christ, be our light!
Shine in your church gathered today.
2. Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has pow'r to save us.
Make us your living voice. (R.)

The Irish Cancer Society's Care to Drive service is currently seeking volunteer drivers to drive local patients to and from their hospital chemotherapy treatments in Dublin.

We are looking for volunteers to pick a patient up at their home, drive them to the door of the hospital, then when they have finished treatment, to pick them up again and bring them home.

The service is free to the patient and all drivers expenses are paid.

Telephone the Irish Cancer Society on 01 2310 566 / 01 2316 642 or email transport@irishcancer.ie

World Missions Ireland:

The Mission Sunday collection takes place on the 19th October. The theme for this years' Mission Month of October is 'That they may have life'...life in all its richness and dignity. The richness of knowing the Gospel and Jesus Christ and the dignity of having food to eat, a roof to sleep under and work to go to, through their work, our missionaries strive to make this a reality for the people they serve. For further information or to make a donation please visit www.wmi.ie RTE are running a report on Missionary / WMI work on their programme Nationwide on Friday the 17th October.

Remembrance Run

The third annual Remembrance Run 5k will take place in the Phoenix Park on Sunday, November 9th at 11am. This year's Remembrance Run - open to Walkers. Joggers & Runners is a great opportunity to fund raise either for your local parish, school or the favourite club or charity of someone important in your life who has passed.

The Remembrance Run 5k is organised by Athletics Ireland, the non-profit making National Governing Body for the Sport of Athletics in Ireland, in association with www.mycharity.ie. Entry for the event is now open at: www.remembrancerun.ie.
