Thought for the Week

"Always think of yourself as everyone's servant; look for Christ Our Lord in everyone and you will then have respect and reverence for them all." - St Teresa of Avila (1515 - 1582)

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS Mark 10:17-30

1) We often get satisfaction from the things we own, clothes, cars, homes, gadgets or money. There would be something unnatural if we did not. But what happens to us when our possessions begin to 'own' us, when they take a hold of us, when we become obsessed with them? Jesus seeks followers who have the freedom to let go of possessions in order to be a servant of others. In whom have you seen this freedom? When have you experienced it yourself?

2) Growth implies change. That change sometimes means letting go of something we have at this moment: job, status, home, security or something else we value. There can be an apparent loss in letting go. Yet have you ever found that you actually gained by having the freedom to let go of something to which you had previously clung?

3) The disciples thought that Jesus was making impossible demands of people following him. He acknowledged that discipleship was impossible to us on our own efforts alone. How have you experienced the benefits of the help of others and of God when you were faced with difficulties in life?

MISSION SUNDAY

Mission Sunday takes place on the 18th October. Pope Francis notes that Mission Sunday 2015 takes place in the context of the Year of Consecrated Life, which provides a further stimulus for prayer and reflection. Today, the Church's mission is faced by the challenge of meeting the needs of all people to return to their roots and to project the values of their respective cultures. We may ask "Who are the first to whom the Gospel message must be proclaimed?" The answer, found so often throughout the Gospel is clear: it is the poor, the little ones and the sick, those who are often looked down upon or forgotten, those who cannot repay us (cf Lk 14: 13-14)

THIS WEEKENDS CHURCH GATE COLLECTION IS IN AID OF CRUMLIN AND DISTRICT MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION. YOUR SUPPORT WOULD BE GREATLY APPRECIATED

A Parishioners Poem……

Perhaps you feel you have lived in vain,
That you have failed somehow;
But if you have touched one human heart,
Or kept one solemn vow,
Or brought on one sad stricken soul
The Hope to live again,
Why then no matter how you feel
You have not lived in vain

New Music from October

From Sunday October 4th we will commence singing a new setting of the ordinary parts of the mass. The ordinary parts are those parts which don't change (Kyrie, Gloria, Holy Holy etc). The new setting is the Mass of St. Mel composed by John O'Keeffe, director of sacred music in St. Patrick's College, Maynooth. The ordinary parts of the mass are intended to be said or sung by the congregation. It is not obligatory for us to sing but by doing so we make the prayers our own. Because of our nature we need visible or audible signs of the mysterious thing (the Mass) we are participating in. Our participation in the external prayer, by singing, helps our internal desire to know God.

Consecrated Life: A Living Tradition within the Church 8:00pm Friday 23rd October to 2:00pm Monday 26th October with Brian O'Leary SJ. Pope Francis named this year as a Year of Consecrated Life. He invites the whole church to reflect on and come to appreciate the charisms of this ecclesial lifestyle. Marking the 50th anniversary of Perfectæ Caritatis, Vatican II's document on religious life, we offer this weekend as an opportunity to thoughtfully and prayerfully take up the Pope's call. Using insights from the Bible, the history of religious life, and its underlying theology, we will explore the sources of the passion and commitment that religious life, at its best, has always embodied. In this way we will be able to embrace an uncertain future with hope. Participants may choose to have meals in silence or talking. Cost: €210 Booking: 01 8331352 or reception@manresa.ie Manresa, Jesuit Centre of Spirituality, 426 Clontarf Road, Dollymount.
