MUSINGS

Our First Reading speaks of the righteous one bearing the iniquities of many. I like very much how Gregory Collins OSB speaks of Jesus' taking on sin for our sake: 'Jesus … the sinless one, became totally at one with lost humanity: he became one with our god-forsakenness … like an enormous sponge he absorbed into his own person all the evil carried out by every human being since the world began until, utterly wrung out, he carried us in union with his own humanity into the furnace of love burning eternally in the heart of the Holy Trinity.' (Meeting Christ in his Mysteries, p. 56)

New Readers Required

If you would like to become a member of the group of readers at weekend Masses in our Parish, please complete the application form placed on your seat. The requirement is that you read at one Mass on one Saturday or Sunday per month. Training will be provided. This is an important service by the laity in helping to bring the good news of the Gospel to the Parish.

Please hand the completed form into the Sacristy or Parish office. Thank You.

MISSION SUNDAY

This Sunday is Mission Sunday and the second collection at all Masses will be taken up for World Missions Ireland (WMI). The theme for Mission Sunday is "Abundant Life" and we hope that people will be moved to contribute generously to the Mission Sunday collection

Refugee Response: As we are all aware, the unprecedented refugee and migrant crisis currently unfolding requires a humanitarian and co-ordinated response. Crosscare is hosting a meeting on Thursday 22nd October at 7.30pm in Holy Cross Diocesan Centre, Clonliffe if you or anyone in your parish would like to attend. At this meeting, the Irish Red Cross will provide an update on the current situation. Crosscare would also like to share ideas on possible supports that can be offered and how we can plan our collective response. We look forwarding to welcoming you.
