Our Lady' Choral Society (OLCS) are presenting a concert in Merchant's Quay Church on Thursday April 14th at 6.30pm.

Admission is free and there will be an announcement during the concert asking for donations for Merchant's Quay Ireland (helping with drug rehab programme) and Focus Ireland (helping homeless people). Top soloists on the night and the Orchestra will be conducted by Proinnsias O Duinn. See you all there.

B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through Death, Separation or Divorce.

Few people are able to cope alone with the pain of loss. Do you find that you need more support than family and friends can provide? Seeking help is a sign of strength and self-knowledge – not weakness. This is a healing ministry, which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn. Next residential weekend will be held 20th – 22nd May in All Hallows, Drumcondra. For further information please contact 086 0877379 or email bedublin@gmail.com. www.beginningexperience.ie

Researchers in the D-Activating Decline project in the Trinity Centre for Health Sciences, St.James's Hospital are inviting volunteers to take part in a research study that aims to understand how low vitamin D levels can be improved for older adults and how this may benefit our health as we age. We are looking for 80 adults aged over 60, who would be interested in checking their vitamin D levels. Following from this you may be asked to take a vitamin D supplement, which we will supply, for 6 months. We will also ask you to perform some tasks which will assess your memory and physical function. If you are interested in finding out more, please email Ms. Niamh Aspell, RN, Irish Research Council Postgraduate Candidate, at niamha@tcd.ie or call 0852114649

Scripture Evenings: Jessie Rogers in Orlagh Retreat Centre, on April 14, 21, 28 and May 5. (7.30-9.30 each evening) €10 per session.

We really don't hear the stories of the Bible until we hear them as stories about ourselves. In these evenings we'll be engaging some of the lesser-known Old Testament characters: Hagar, Esau, Miriam and Naomi. Even though they could be considered 'minor players' in the sweep of the Old Testament narrative, their stories are surprisingly complex and insightfully told. To book a place for this course phone 01 495 8190, or Email info@orlagh.ie Orlagh, Gunny Hill, Dublin 16 VF38.

LECTIO MUSINGS

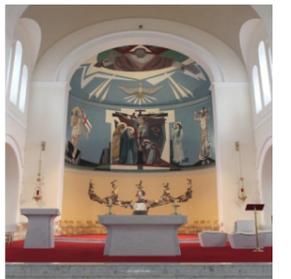

Fear is a terrible thing. It cripples us and makes us into cowards and people incapable of action. The apostles and disciples were huddled away in terror of the mob and the dreaded knock of the door. Knowing this the Master came and stood among them. Not for the first time did he calm their terrors. The storm at sea might well have been a sign of what was to happen at Golgotha. Joy and peace he imparted to them. How blessed they must have felt. The unimaginable had truly occurred. What was the end now was to be transformed into the beginning, and what a beginning. In sending them forth, He equipped them with his Breath, the Ruach of the Father. Poor Thomas missed it all and was still locked into his grief and loss. God how often I find myself saying his words 'Unless!' You took his hand as you had before with Peter as he sunk into the sea, and restored his self belief and faith in you. My Lord and my God!

Thought for the Week
The Jubilee is a year-long celebration, in which every moment becomes a chance for us to grow in holiness.
Pope Francis (Twitter)

THE DEEP END • 'Come and have Breakfast'

During these Easter weeks we read from St John's Gospel. The passages are very deep and in today's text there are many things going on. Perhaps we might focus on Peter and the journey he has made.

We all have experience of friendships and relationships that break down. When that happens it feels like a death – we grieve, we get angry, we have regrets, we wonder 'what if?' Three times Peter denied Jesus and today we hear Peter express his love for Jesus three times. Jesus welcomes Peter back into community with him. Peter experiences Resurrection; he is given new life. There is no situation, no matter how terrible, that Jesus cannot transform, forgive, welcome back, restore. Peter says to Jesus – 'Lord you know everything' and we too must remember that Jesus knows our hearts, as He knew Peter's heart. The questioning here is perhaps so that Peter can hear it for himself. The relationship is restored and we, like Peter, are once more invited in to 'Follow me!'

Lord, we thank you for people who have forgiven us, not a mean, calculating forgiveness, not harping on the ways in which we wronged them, but forgiving with the forgiveness of Jesus, so that it was like coming back from a hard night's work, and seeing some bread there and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it and the very person we had hurt saying, 'Come and have breakfast.' And we not having to ask any questions because we knew that everything was forgiven.'
