Thought for the Week

" The Jubilee is the party to which Jesus invites us all, without excluding anyone " - Pope Francis Twitter

SAINT AMABILIS

Pious from his childhood, Amabilis served as a parish priest in his native city of Riom, France and later as a precentor (Leading chorister) in the cathedral of Clermont. Remembered for his humility, simplicity, and purity of heart, he was a generous friend of the poor. Amabilis said Mass with exceptions devotion and deep contrition, shedding tears as he celebrated the sacrament. Fasting frequently, he often went without sleep to pray through the night. His homilies touched many hearts and many requested his prayers. Amabilis went on a pilgrimage to Rome, where he prayed at the tombs of the Apostles and was entrusted with precious relics of the saints . During his final illness, he sang psalms and hymns, clothed in a penitential hair shirt. Following his death, miracles of healing were attributed to his intercession by those visiting his tomb. Amabilis has been invoked for protection from fire and snakes.

We have the Blessed Sacrament exposed in the oratory; those are divine hours spent in this little corner of heaven, where we possess the vision in substance under the humble Host. Yes, he whom the blessed contemplate in light and we adore in faith is really the same One.

Blessed Elizabeth of the Trinity

The Church gate collection this weekend is in aid of Pax Christi Ireland

Pax Christi, the Irish section of the International Catholic Peace Movement is based in the church grounds in Rathmines. It was born out of the ashes of World War II for the promotion of peace and justice in our broken world witnessing the peace of Christ.

Pax Christi Ireland has been playing a leading role in addressing major global issues through public awareness and high-level advocacy work directed at governments, the UN and other institutions to change national and global policies e.g. on issues related to landmines, explosive remnants of war, cluster bombs, small arms & light weapons, international arms trade, lethal autonomous weapons, child soldiers, nuclear disarmament and many others. It also works in the area of human rights, education for peace and non-violence and issues related to Northern Ireland.

'The strength of the family lies in its capacity to love and to teach how to love.'
Pope Francis (Amoris Laetitia, April 2016)

Pope Francis has chosen Ireland to host the 9th World Meeting of Families during 2018. The dates and theme of the Meeting will be announced by Pope Francis himself.

In 2018, the 9th World Meeting of Families is expected to attract thousands of Catholic families from around the globe to Ireland. It is hoped that this very special pastoral initiative will present all of us in the Church with the opportunity, and the challenge, to renew, support and strengthen Irish families in their commitment to their faith.

Hosting a global event of this size requires a huge amount of planning and financial outlay on behalf of the host country. Accordingly, our bishops have now established a National Finance Committee to provide advice on the financial planning for the World Meeting of Families in Ireland. To support the hosting of the event we intend to hold three national church collections, the first of which will take place on the weekend of 28–29 May. The remaining collections will take place in 2017 and 2018. Please visit worldmeeting2018.ie for more details.
