Feasts Celebrated this Week

1. Tuesday 31st January is the Feast of St. John Bosco, Founder of the Salesians. He died in 1888. He worked with boys educating them for life. He is Patron Saint of Youth and Catholic Publishers
2. Wednesday 1st February is the Feast of St Brigid. One of our Patron Saints. She was born in the year 454 and was renowned for hospitality, Almsgiving and care of the sick. She died in the year 524 and she is honoured in several European countries.
3. Thursday 2nd February is the Feast of The Presentation of The Lord. It is the custom to Bless Candles on that day. It is a reminder of Simeon who recognised Christ as 'A Light to reveal Jesus to the Nations'. Let us walk always as children of the light. It is a Catholic Tradition that there is always a Blessed Candle in every Catholic Home
4. Friday 3rd February is the Feast of St. Blaise. He died a martyr in Armenia in 315AD. Blessing of throats will take place after all Three Masses.

Thought for the Week

"Do not put off till tomorrow the good you can do today. You may not have a tomorrow." - St John Bosco

SEEING YOUR LIFE THROUGH THE LENS OF THE GOSPELS

Matthew 5:1-12

The blessings in the Beatitudes are primarily future blessings, but there can be an anticipation of the blessings in the present.

At first reading, some Beatitudes may seem to describe circumstances that you would like to avoid at all costs. Read them slowly. Stay with each one for a while. Let yourself get a sense of the paradox involved in each one. Perhaps you have had an experience of a deeper and more authentic life, a blessing, when

You were poor – you knew your need of God
You mourned – could feel for others
You were meek – self-controlled, neither overly aggressive nor a doormat.
You hungered and thirsted for some cause
You were merciful rather than vengeful
You were pure in heart – a person of integrity, whose actions and intentions correspond
You were a peacemaker
You were persecuted because you stood for something.

O Crucified Jesus have mercy on me ,
My soul and my body I give unto thee
The five bleeding wounds that hung from a tree
O Crucified Jesus have mercy on me
The five bleeding wounds you suffered for me.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week, 29th January 2017: Christian Meditation Ireland

Christian Meditation Ireland (CMI) is part of the ecumenical World Community for Christian Meditation, which continues the work initiated 40 years ago by the Benedictine monk, John Main, in renewing and sharing the ancient path of contemplative prayer.
The CMI website offers rich resources for individual and group meditation, and will also help you find an Irish meditation group near you.
Access this, and many other rich online spiritual resources, via www.NewPilgrimPath.ie.

New Pilgrim Path

PRAYER TO ST. SAINT BRIGID

You were a woman of peace.
You brought harmony where there was conflict.
You brought light to the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and in our world.
Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all God has made.
Brigid you were a voice for the wounded and the weary.
Strengthen what is weak within us.
Calm us into a quietness that heals and listens.
May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit. Amen

Eucharistic Adoration

We are seeking additional people to spend a specific hour each week with Jesus in the Oratory. Ideally there should be a minimum of two registered adorers at any one time - this is not presently the position. Also we are asking that those of you who visit the Oratory (who are not registered) would please sign under "Visitors"

On "Divine Mercy" afternoons, could the adorers please sign the Register, which is usually on the table in the centre aisle. The Adoration Team wish to thank you for your co-operation.
