Thought for the Week

"It's your road, and your alone, Others may walk it with you, but no can walk it for you" - Rumi

THE DEEP END - Salt and Light

In today's Gospel we hear of two scenarios where salt is concerned: one is that we are called to be 'salt of the earth'. What salt does for food, Christians are called to do for the world – to give life 'taste'. You might recall someone who brought 'taste' to your own life, encouraging you on your journey, offering hope, a new insight or project, someone you followed and learned from. What gifts did they bring?

The other scenario in the Gospel today is where salt has lost its taste – how can it be restored? You might recall someone you placed great hope in, whether it be a family member, a public figure, a Church leader or politician; someone who had vision and inspired others. Yet the 'salt' or the 'taste' was lost. We see this all around us in our world, when someone's potential is lost.

There are many situations in our world today where people's light is not allowed to shine. It is controlled, hidden, prevented from being used for the benefit of all because of jealousy or perhaps others are afraid of the consequences. Jesus tells us that these lights must shine, for all, and then we can give glory to God in heaven for the fruits it may produce. To help lights shine and to give flavour to the world is our task today. Another way of putting it might be: how are the effects of our encounter with Jesus Christ evident in our lives?

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION IRELAND
Essential Teaching Weekend. March 10th to 12th.

Dominican Priory Retreat House, Main Street, Tallaght. Email: retreathouse@eircom.net Phone: 4048123
Christian Meditation Ireland are organising an Essential Teaching Weekend this coming March. Essential Teaching Weekends are designed to strengthen the practice of Meditation for anyone who has been meditating for a year or more. The weekend is an experience of community living and provides an opportunity to discuss any and all the elements of this ancient prayer practice. The programme followed for the weekend is an internationally recognised program and will give the participants all the skills necessary to start a meditation group and lead that group. Core elements of meditation including The History of the Tradition: The Essential Teaching and Stages on the Journey will be covered. Early booking is important to facilitate the organisation of the weekend. For further information contact: niallcharleton@eircom.net.
