THE DEEP END: Generous love

A remarkable story of generosity featured on Joe Duffy's Liveline: Call Back programme on RTÉ recently. It was the story of Shane O'Neill, who had a history of drugs offences and ended up serving time in prison in Belgium. On release from prison he went to the Irish Embassy to ask for the price of a flight to return home, but was turned down. Another Irish man, Charlie Kiernan, overheard the exchange and decided to help, booking him a flight and buying him breakfast. When Shane asked how he could repay him, Charlie suggested he 'pay it forward'. The kind gesture was the catalyst for Shane turning his life around.

It is this sort of generous love that we hear about in today's gospel, in the parable told by Jesus. The master who cancels the servant's debt does so out of compassion and generosity. It is of no benefit to him to pardon the debt. He will be down ten thousand talents – one talent was worth more than 15 years' wages of a labourer, so we are talking about a large sum of money! The servant is grateful, but not so grateful that he is willing to take pity on a fellow servant who owes him just one hundred denarii – one denarius was the usual day's wage for a labourer.

The parable speaks to us about the kindness of God, but also what he expects from us. Because we have been loved, we must love. Because we have been forgiven, we must forgive.

Foundational Leadership Programme for Young Adults

The Foundational Leadership Programme for Young Adults is now enrolling new participants. In order to create, develop and sustain parish youth ministry we need to develop and nurture a new generation of leaders. This course is dynamic, practical and enables participants to begin to develop their skills as leaders and role models within their local faith based communities. The Foundational Leadership Programme is run in ecumenical partnership with the Church of Ireland in Dublin and the Irish Province of the Capuchin Franciscans. If you are interested in knowing more about the course starting in October click - http://www.evangelisation.ie/2017/09/01/foundational-leadership-for-young-adults-enroll-now/ or

Pathways- Exploring Faith & Ministry. Pathways is a two-year one night a week course for adults of all ages wish to explore their faith. It runs from late September to May each year. There are no exams and no written work. The only requirement is an openness to listening to others and to participate. You can just come along and enjoy! The cost is €400 for the coming year which may be paid in instalments. This adult faith development programme begins in Clonliffe College on Thursday 28th September from 7.00pm – 9.30 pm. Booking is now open. Places are limited so early application is advisable, some sponsorship may be available for those of limited means. For more information please visit www.evangelisation.ie or contact Eileen Houlahan, Director, Pathways Programme, on 01 8379253 Ext 294 or Email: pathways@dublindiocese.ie

A YEAR at SAINT PATRICK'S Friday 29 September 2017 at 6.15pm - ADMISSION FREE

On behalf of the Dean of Saint Patrick's, I'd like to invite you and the members of your congregations to come and join us at the Cathedral for a concert marking the launch of the Cathedral Choir's latest CD A year at Saint Patrick's. The concert itself is free and will last approximately 40/45 minutes, and hopefully if you like what you hear you'll be tempted to purchase a copy of the new CD after the concert! What better way to delay the Dublin rush hour than by sitting in the magnificent surroundings of the Cathedral listening to the Cathedral Choir!

Irish Sign Language Awareness Week 2017: The aim of the week is to promote awareness of ISL and the Deaf community in Ireland, in conjunction with International Week of the Deaf, which is a week-long celebration of sign languages and deaf communities around the world. This annual event commemorates the existence of Deaf people, signed languages and their contribution to communities both here in Ireland and abroad. There will be many different events and activities scheduled for this week beginning with an official launch on Monday the 18th of September. RSVP by Thursday, 14th of September 2017 by Email: info@irishdeafsociety.ie for more info. www.deaf.ie

Items to be included in the Newsletter should be left in the Parish Office no later than noon on the Wednesday before each weekend in the week of publication.
