Catholic Schools Week In partnership with the World Meeting of Families, the Catholic Schools Week Steering Committee has developed a one-year catechetical programme for Catholic primary and post-primary schools. The theme for this 2018 programme is 'Catholic Schools: Called to be a Family of Families.' The programme invites Catholic schools to celebrate the relationship that exists between home, school and parish through participation in four sub-themed catechetical moments. During this Catholic school's week, families participate in a week of reflection on this year's theme. The Catholic Schools Week Steering Committee has made a series of resources available for schools, each with its own unique daily theme, on www.catholicschools.ie

St Agnes Parish Family Mass Group

We meet on Wednesday evenings in St Agnes Parish Centre Dodder Room from 6.00 – 7.00pm

We prepare for Sunday Mass, through art and music. This is a great way for children to prepare for their First Holy Communion.

Children will be encouraged to read and take part in the Mass. Our Family Mass is at 11.00am. All children welcome from age 5 upwards.

Life to the Full (Jn 10: 10) Book Club

Join other 20 & 30 year olds to meditate, share and discuss life, faith, purpose and how to live life to the full. We read a chosen spiritual book over a few weeks and come to reflect and discuss our thoughts. From 7.00 - 8.30pm every Thursday in St. Paul's Church, Arran Quay, Dublin 7

Thought for the Week

"We have forty million reasons for failure, but not a single excuse" - Rudyard Kipling

A regular attender at our Sunday Mass won a prize in the C.Y.M.S. essay competition in 1959 for the following essay. Well done. t is still relevant today.

WHY AM I A CATHOLIC

Because by the Grace of God I was born of Catholic parents, and on my Baptism I became a member of the Catholic Church.

When I came to the age of reason I was instructed in the Sacraments and as I grew up, I learned to understand more and more their value – particularly that of Penance which enables me to ask God's pardon when I offend him and I know He will forgive me if I am truly sorry. Contrast this with a friend whom we offend but who refuses to forgive or to have anything more to do with us.

We know we are only on this earth for a time and that our real home is Heaven, and what a consolation we have in our religion especially in times of trouble and to be able to turn to God for guidance, and his Blessed Mother for consolation. In our Catholic Churches we have our Divine Lord present on the Altar always waiting for us to drop in and speak to Him and tell Him our troubles.

As a Catholic I must be careful to give good example by my conduct especially to my fellow workers and in my dealings with others because I, as a Catholic know the law laid down by God's 'TEN COMMANDMENTS'

Yes, it is good to be a Catholic no matter how you are placed in this life. If I have riches they are a gift from God which must be used carefully and correctly. If I am poor I can always remember that the Home at Nazareth was poor and thus be consoled. I could go on and on giving reasons for being a Catholic not the least being how happy I feel when I am friends with God and can offer to him every day my thoughts, words and actions.

In conclusion I do hope God continues to be generous towards me, keeping me well in Soul, Mind and Body and that when I am called by my Master I will be ready. At present I pray to God through the intercession of His Blessed Mother that I will die a Happy Death and I may enter Paradise which God has promised me if I am a good Catholic.

B.E. – Beginning Experience

B.E. is a support group for those coping with the pain of loss of their life partner, through death, separation or divorce. Few people are able to cope alone with the pain of loss. Do you find that you need more support than family and friends can provide? Seeking help is a sign of strength and self-knowledge – not weakness. This is a healing ministry, which helps to resolve the grief that goes with the end of a marriage or relationship. Coping effectively with bereavement is a skill we can all learn. A team who are themselves widowed, separated or divorced share their experiences with you. Next Coping Programme will commence on Wednesday 7th February, for 7 Wednesday evenings, at 7.15pm in White Friars Community Centre, Aungier St. ,Dublin 2 (no need to book). For further information phone 086 0877379, email bedublin@gmail.com or visit www.beginningexperience.ie

Irish Cancer Society

The Irish Cancer Society operates a free transport service for patients attending hospital for chemotherapy treatment. Volunteer drivers pick the patient up at the door of their home, drop them at the hospital door, then when finished treatment, will pick them up and drop them home. Volunteer expenses are paid. Patients wishing to avail of this free service should contact their healthcare professional, visit the Society's website at www.cancer.ie or contact the Irish Cancer Society for more information on 2310 522.

Lenten Campaign for Ireland Join our Lenten Campaign of Prayer and Fasting and help Ireland at this crucial time when we are being threatened with abortion and redefinition of family. Let's all come together and pray for our nation beginning on Ash Wednesday. Please call Paul on 087 9141588 or email your pledge to lentencampaignforchange@gmail.com

Church Service

On 8 February, the occasion of the World Day of Prayer, Reflection and Action against Human Trafficking, an Inter-Church Service will take place at St. Paul's Church, Arran Quay.
