Thought for the Week

"Have a heart that never hardens, and a temper that never tires, and a touch that never hurts" - Charles Dickens

THE DEEP END: 'The First of His Signs'

This is a familiar story, rich in symbolism. It is the first 'sign' recorded in John's Gospel. These 'signs' in John's Gospel are miracle stories but John prefers to use the term 'sign,' as they point to something far more than just the miracle itself. John used these signs to encourage belief in his readers but they are also an invitation for us to understand something more of how God operates in our lives.

Jesus transforms the water which would be used for the Jewish purification rite. He takes something used to give life to people, and transforms it into something which brings joy, celebration and new life to the party. There are many messages we can take from this account: the ability of God to transform our lives, to transform that which is dead and stale. The abundance of wine (approx. 700 litres!) is a significant reminder of the abundance of God's love for us, beyond our comprehension.

We could also focus on the role of Mary in this Gospel – she is the one who notices, she is attentive to the needs of those around her and brings this concern to Jesus. We might pray today that we too may be able to notice, to see, to intervene when we are faced with situations that need attention. This may be a situation of injustice or it may be a situation where something in our own lives or in our church has become dead and stale and is in desperate need of new wine.

Candle Care

Just a little reminder to take care when lighting candles. They carry with them a warning of danger. Particularly, would you please supervise children. Our shrines are ablaze with candles on certain days. We would not like you to be ablaze as well !!

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week.

The internet has made it possible for anyone with a broadband connection to access thousands of radio stations all over the world. There are many Christian stations – from CNN's "Belief", covering the faith angles of the world's biggest news stories to Ireland's "Soul Waves" which provides excellent weekly interviews on a range of religious and social topics. In terms of television, EWTN is the largest religious media network in the world, transmitting programming 24/7 to 148 million homes in 144 countries and also accessible on the internet. Access these, and several other inspiring stations at www.NewPilgrimPath.ie

St. Agnes Feast Day 21st January

St. Agnes is our Parish Patron Saint. An interesting fact that probably most people do not know is that the Archbishops of Armagh, Dublin, Cashel and Tuam wear what's called the Pallium, and this vestment is made of wool shorn from sheep on the feast day of St. Agnes. St. Agnes is always accompanied by a lamb as you will notice in the painting on the Apse of the Church behind the Altar in our Parish Church

Church Art Calendars 2019

Spare Calendars are available in the Repository and the Sacristy at the reduced price of €1.00

The Priory Institute

Registration is now open for Spring Semester we offer a number of theology courses through distance education (beginning on 02 March 2019). For more information on our courses contact us by email at: enquiries@prioryinstitute.com or Telephone: 404 8125 or www.prioryinstitute.com

MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

This weekend we remember and pray especially for migrants and refugees who often travel on a very difficult road because they live in great poverty in their own countries. Life is a struggle for these people. In the last month during the calm recent weather over 200 people have landed in England from France making the difficult journey in small boats on one of the busiest sea lanes in the world. In this way they hope to make a better life for themselves and their families. Remember that many of our Irish people in times past emigrated to foreign lands like Australia and the United States and contributed to the prosperity of these lands. Migrants and refugees who arrive in Ireland should be received with hospitality.
