Thought for the Week

"In every young person, a point of goodness is accessible" - St John Bosco

THE DEEP END: 'So that you may know the truth'

There is something about the opening sentences of Luke's Gospel that grabs one's attention. He is the only Gospel writer to give us information about his purpose and sources. He writes for Theophilus, whose name in Greek suggests 'lover of God'. Theophilus may have been a patron of Luke's, but we can also take this name to mean that Luke writes for all lovers of God, i.e. all of us.

Jesus, 'as was his custom,' attends the service at his local synagogue. It is clear that Jesus was a faithful Jew even though he is about to have some serious run-ins with the Jewish religious leaders. This moment is one of the most powerful passages in the New Testament, as Jesus sets out his manifesto for ministry. Reading from Isaiah, Jesus tells the crowd that this passage is being fulfilled as they hear it, his ministry would be one focused on freeing people from various types of oppression. This passage is as relevant in our world today as it was for Jesus' time: people still await liberation, the oppressed are not free. This is not a passage read in the past: it is very much alive, a vision for all to have as Christians and to work out of. Just as the scriptures are fulfilled in Jesus, they are also fulfilled in each of our lives.

'Although they heard you, Lord, they failed to listen. They heard only what they wanted to hear. The truth hurt them, you made them feel uncomfortable, and they rejected you … Show us how we may seek your Kingdom and help to bring peace to a troubled world.' - Tony Singleton

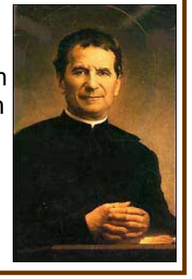
Feast of St. John Bosco 31st January



The Parish here in St. Agnes has a long association with the Salesian Order which was founded by St. John Bosco. We would like to congratulate the Salesians on the 100th Anniversary of their presence in Ireland. Their first foundation here was in Pallaskenry where they have a large school. We wish them every blessing on their celebrations this year and we thank them for their presence here in St. Agnes Parish.

BLESSING OF THROATS will take place at all Masses on Monday the 4th of February.

Do you have memories of Dublin's tenements? Perhaps you lived in a tenement, or knew someone who did. Maybe you worked in or around the tenement buildings. Whatever your connection, we would like to hear your stories.

Drop in and join us for a chat and a cup of tea and help us to understand more about life in Dublin's tenements, an important part of our history.

We will be at Walkinstown Library on Monday 18th February, 2-4pm, and St Agnes' CCMA on Thursday 21st February from 10am-12pm. You can drop in whenever suits you at those times to find out more about the project and chat to us about your memories. If you can't make it, there will be other drop in sessions elsewhere in the city, and at 14 Henrietta Street. Get in touch for more details.

'Your Tenement Memories' is a research project run by Dublin City Council Culture Company. We would like to talk to people with memories of life in 14 Henrietta Street (www.14HenriettaStreet.ie) or other Dublin tenements to grow understanding of tenement life in Dublin.

14 Henrietta Street is a new museum, telling the story of 300 years of city life through the stories of one building, from a grand townhouse in the 1700s, to tenements from the 1880s until around 1979.

If you would like to find out more, call 01524 0383 or email memories@14henriettastreet.ie
