Archdiocese of Dublin Official Pilgrimage to Lourdes September 2019
The people of the Archdiocese may join the Annual Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes as Associates, by being enrolled by making a voluntary offering. The money collected will be devoted to defraying the expenses of the Sick Pilgrim Section. They will receive in return, as Associates, an enrolment leaflet outlining the prayers of the Associates. The enrolment sheets containing the names of the Associates will be placed at the Grotto during the Pilgrimage. Mass will be offered for all the Associate Members at the Grotto in Lourdes. If you wish to make a voluntary offering this can be done in the repository at the back of the church.

Thought for the Week
Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people. - Eleanor Roosevelt

The Deep End - A mystery to me

'It is a riddle, wrapped in a mystery, inside an enigma.'

This expression, originally used in 1939 by Winston Churchill, is typically used to describe something that is immensely puzzling or too complex to understand. The word 'mystery' is often used in everyday speech. When we can't wrap our heads around something, we shrug and say: 'It's a mystery to me,' or: 'It's another of life's great mysteries.'

As a child, I used to wonder about the religious meaning of 'mystery.' I remember someone telling me that if something is a mystery, it can never be fully understood, though that does not mean we should stop trying – like Jesus being fully human and fully divine (the incarnation), Jesus' death and resurrection (the Paschal mystery), and three persons in one God (the Trinity). It is this last mystery that we celebrate today.

One of the most poignant attempts to explain the Trinity came from C.S. Lewis, who reasoned that if God is love, then God must contain more than one person: 'God is not a static thing – not even a person – but a dynamic, pulsating activity, a life, almost a kind of drama. Almost, if you will not think me irreverent, a kind of dance.' The idea of the Trinity as a sort of divine dance is a good place to begin reflecting on this great mystery of God as a communion of love. In today's Gospel, we see that Jesus is comfortable with an element of mystery. He does not reveal everything to his disciples at once, as it 'would be too much for you now.' The full truth will be revealed later, when the Spirit comes. The more we reflect, the more we pray, the more we are open to the Spirit, the more we will understand about the great mystery of God as love.

Four course meal on the return journey at the same hotel The Percy French. Due to the increase in VAT the price is gone from €43 up to €44. Early booking is advisable in the Parish Office.

A Father's Day Blessing

Lord God, you are our Father and the source of all fatherhood.
Bless all fathers especially those gathered here.
May their fatherhood reflect yours.
May they offer wise guidance and sound example to their children.
May they be patient and kind.
Bless them in times of difficulty or uncertainty.
Give them a strong and lively faith and help them to share that faith with their children.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen
